REGISTERING LATE

All full time students who will be studying on campus in a succeeding term will be expected to register for that term within the registration period. Those who do not will be contacted shortly after registration to clarify their intent to attend during the following term. Failure to register by the end of the first two weeks of the term will be regarded as withdrawal from the College. Students returning from off-campus status who have not registered may register during the first two weeks of the term or with the permission of the Academic Standing Committee thereafter.

SOPHOMORE PRIORITY

"Sophomore priority" noted in the schedule means students are allowed to register for the course in the following order: sophomores, first year students, seniors, juniors. A senior or junior wanting to register for such a course must waitlist in the "WL" section and may register for the course during spring term if space is available, however waitlisted sophomores and first year students will have waitlist priority. If you are a junior or senior and need a particular "sophomore priority" course for graduation, PLEASE TALK WITH YOUR ADVISOR NOW.

In this course we survey four or more genres, including but not limited to the Western, the musical, the horror film, the comedy, and the science-fiction film. What criteria are used to place a film in a particular genre? What role do audiences and studios play in the creation and definition of film genres? Where do genres come from? How do genres change over time? What roles do genres play in the viewing experience? What are hybrid genres and subgenres? What can genres teach us about society? Assignments aim to develop skills in critical analysis, research and writing. AL, WR, LA, WR2

Writing The Great Plains is a one-credit course exploring the American Great Plains, as laid out in the book by the same name. The course will deal with the problems and opportunities of the modern Great Plains, including the economics and ecology of that threatened and often forgotten region. In addition, Dan O'Brien will talk about the process of conceiving and executing the award-winning book of photography and essays and give insights into why such projects are important. Requirements will include in-class participation and a short impression paper, due at the end of the two week class. ND, NE

Liberation theologians argue that the core theme of the Judeo-Christian Bible is human liberation. This course will survey the classical biblical texts used to support this claim, as well as the key concept and theoretical presuppositions of liberal hermeneutics. We will also engage with contemporary challenge to classic liberation approaches coming from post-colonial, queer, indigenous, feminist, critical race and disability studies. Liberation readings from all continents will be covered utilizing the new Peoples' Bible and the Peoples' Companion to the Bible. 6 cr., HU, WR, RAD; HI, WR2, IS

This course will explore a variety of methods for taking Shakespeare's text from the page to the stage. Using approaches developed in theaters in the United States and the United Kingdom, students will prepare written analysis and construct performances that explore Shakespeare's use of formal rhetoric and poetic imagery and examine some of the ethical and political questions posed in the plays. Using video and audio recordings, students will critically examine various approaches to performing Shakespeare in the United States and United Kingdom over the last century. Prerequisite: One of more of the following: Theater 110, 185, 190, 200, 240/241, 211, 312, English 244, 281/282 or 310. 6 cr., AL, WR; ARP, WR2,
