

As usual, Cecil is shocked that I'm not paying attention to him...

This is Moly. She thinks it is unfair that we use a mouse all the time and wants cats to be a part of the home office setup!

This is Millie - 4 month old German Shepherd pup!

And this is the usual scene from my home office desk - Bacon and Millie!

Here's a picture of my dog Bandido, he has been an amazing co-worker!

Cats, social distancing in my home office.

Cat disappointed that I've eaten all the snacks.

Let me help you--you didn't really need any of these papers, did you?

Here is my coworker, Zelda! On vs. off!

Meet Sugar-
She's a super friendly Persian cat and a bit of a diva at times.

Break Time?

I have a dog bed in my home office;
but more often than not, Ginger, the boss of the house, is on it.

Charley

My dog, Snickers, kept me in good balance between work and health.

She requested daily lunch breaks in the neighborhood. She stood by this lovely chalk art on the sidewalk, done by the kids in our Mankato neighborhood.

Snickers sent her love to Carleton's working force at home or in the office (if you have to!) As she predicted, there will be a light in the dark tunnel of this COVID-19!

I'm keeping my eye on you, Mom...

You look like you need
this toy more than I do.

A small, scruffy dog with grey and white fur is lying on its side on a light-colored carpet. The dog's head is turned towards the camera, and its front paws are extended. In the foreground, the lower legs and feet of a person wearing blue sneakers are visible. A speech bubble originates from the dog's mouth, containing the text: "You're not touching that dumbbell until you give me a tummy rub!". In the background, a dumbbell is partially visible on the carpet.

You're not touching that dumbbell until you give me a tummy rub!

A small, fluffy black and white dog is lying on a beige carpeted floor. The dog is positioned in front of a computer monitor and keyboard. A speech bubble is overlaid on the image, containing the text: "Before you get on that infernal computer, get me some COFFEE!".

Before you get on that infernal
computer, get me some
COFFEE!

Crowding the Break Room

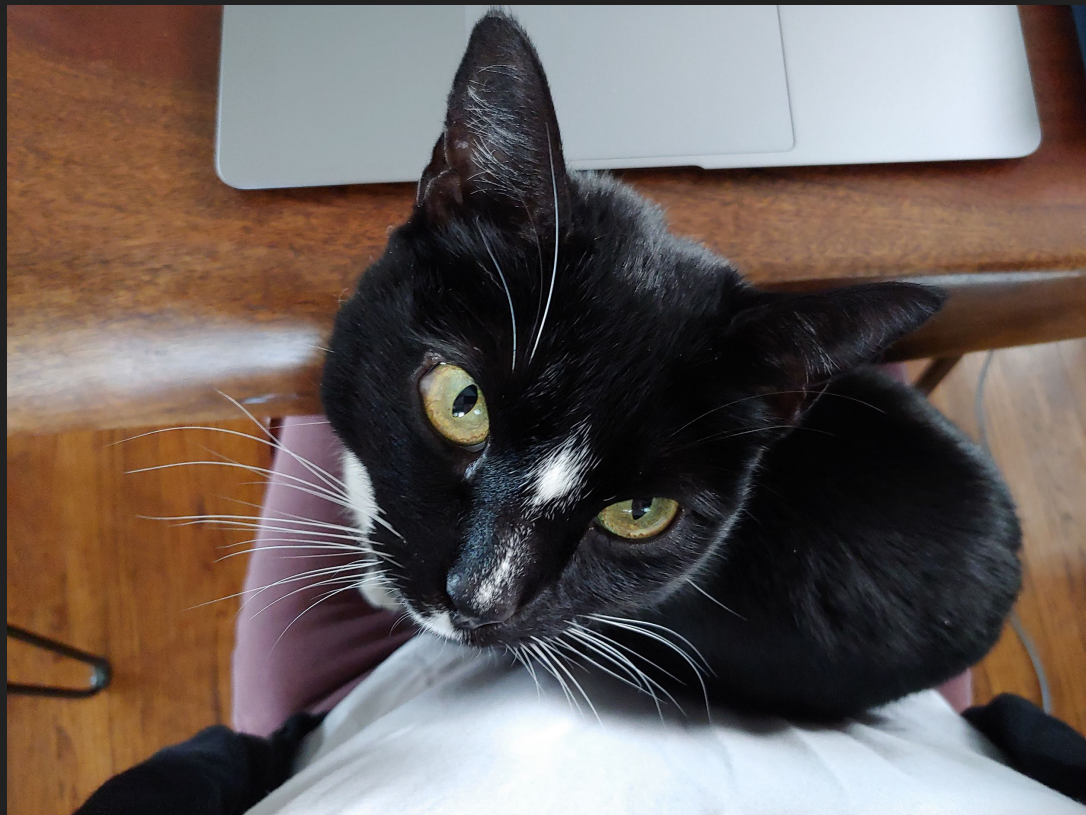

My coworker is my
cat Abitur Moggie
Ferdinand Hall.

Abitur Moggie Ferdinand Hall

He is named for the German test given to all high school graduates to determine their future schooling. Moggie is the British term for cats from our recent travels to Great Britain. Ferdinand is for the king of Spain taken from my “Camino de Santiago” last year.

I teach organ and harpsichord for Carleton, and Abitur is my biggest music lover.

This is Pope. She's "helping".

The new employee is not very productive.

Tomo Kitty - is just hanging on by a thread

Teddy Bear (Bichon Frise/Shih-Tzu) - he's just SO happy to spend another day working from home with me that he's grinning from ear to ear!

Here are my two new cube mates, Yojo and Raven ... who for some reason insist on sitting beneath the desk rather than beside it.

My new coworker, Polar, is very lazy and not very helpful at all.

Team Meeting

Team Meeting

Meet Sitka (L) & Benetton (R).

No social distancing for those two :)

They were sitting right next to my work station. BEST VIEW ever

My co-worker takes breaks while climbing the stairs.

Layla

Sushi taking over the iPad.

Kato and Raya staring at me everyday while I'm trying to work.

My cat is being driven nuts having his humans home full time. Or perhaps it's his cat-bin fever related to the shelter in place order. :)

Phoebe - She is very playful, good kitty. When she thinks I've been on Zoom for too long, she lays on her favorite bear blanket next to me, looks deep into my eyes, and tells me to come and play:)

Going for a ride with grandpa!

Helping grandma stay out of trouble and keeping her warm on these cold days and nights.

Late night working buddy-Daisy.

Rudy is one of my coworkers. He request lap time during Zoom meeting!

Molly

My 4-legged coworker, Monty the wunderdog!

This is Charlotte - our mini goldendoodle puppy.
She loves to be near my desk when I'm working... sometimes a little too near. :)

Copper, who provides emotional support while I work. And yes, he does hold my hand when he sleeps :)

Here are two of my 13
co-workers, Noir & Nimbus. Everyone else was asleep on the job.

Yoga cats-

I do yoga with Michelle Moad through the wellness center over lunch. I set up my mat and walked away and this is what I came back to.

My co-workers
doing the dog
version of social distancing.

Resting after a full day's work!

Bert and Tilly...Mom's desk (and waste basket) helpers!

My co-worker and I at the President's quarterly meeting!

My dog, Frank, has decided that he needs to partake in my Zoom meetings.

Riley insists on sitting on my lap because it's the comfiest seat in this room. It's too hard to say no sometimes, it's so cute when he does it. :)

Eddie!

Meet Jojo, She has trouble understanding how I can be home and not playing with her.

From this past Winter.

Angel

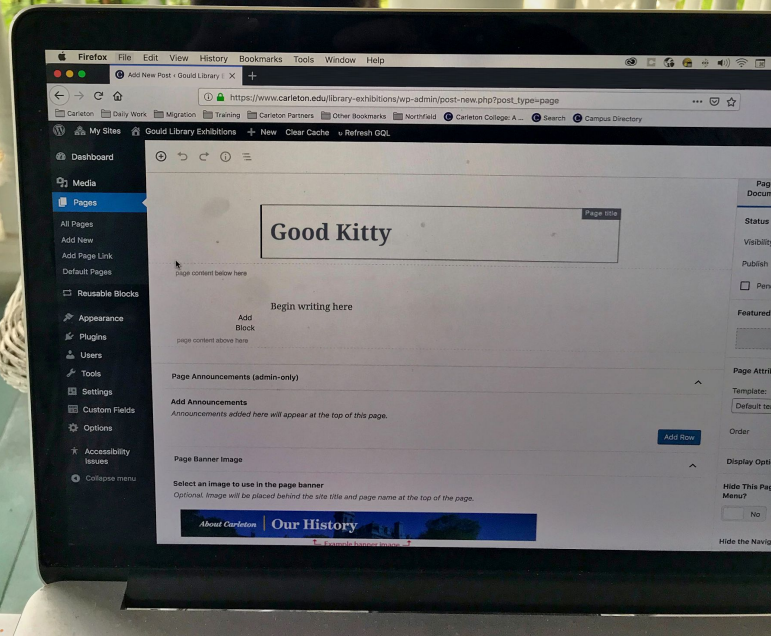

My administrative assistant, Pooka, and my proof-reader, Pony. They're taking a nap after a hard day of emails and editing. By the way, they have no problem with Zoom!

Here's my super-sweet cat, Cricket, helping out with some website work this afternoon.

Abbie
Sr. Snuggles Officer

A close-up photograph of a ginger and white cat curled up into a tight ball, sleeping peacefully on a light-colored, textured carpet. The cat's fur is a mix of warm ginger and white patches. Its head is tucked down, and its eyes are closed. A small portion of a white, fluffy object, possibly a toy or blanket, is visible on the right side of the frame.

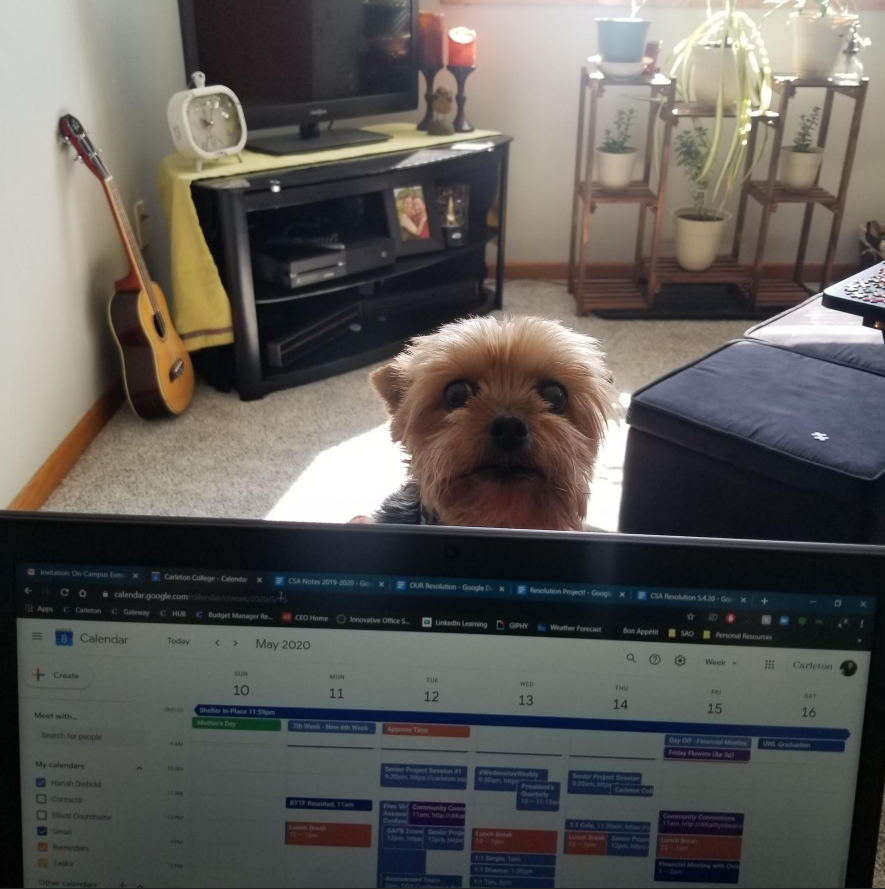

Scooter

Employee Morale Officer

(In training)

Belle - my 10 year old Yorkie. She loves to follow the sun for naps, nap in her chair, nap on the couch, lay on my lap during Zoom meetings, and follow me when I roam the apartment!

Belle

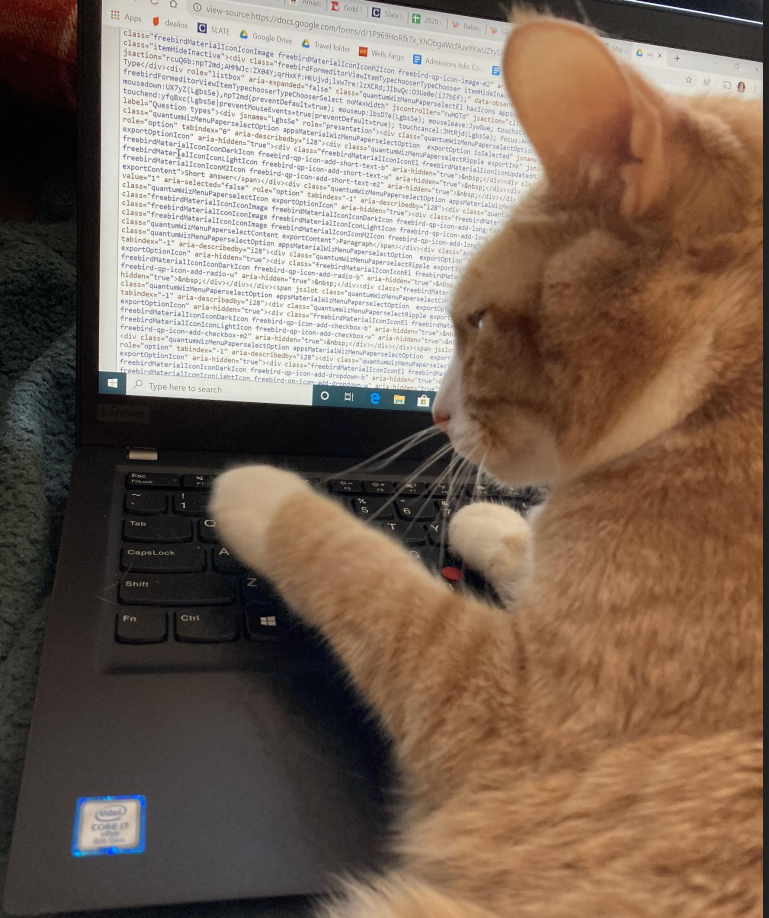

This is our Guinea pig named Tiger, who's clearly wondering, "Are these all the snacks you've got?"

Reina hard at work!

My favorite COVID coworker. She only wants to lay with me when I've got the computer in my lap. Also that webpage looked normal before she parked herself on my keyboard, lol. :)

I keep catching
my intern
sleeping on the job.
