8:00 pm

Middle Eastern Languages Lounge

Eligibility: All Carleton students in good academic standing irrespective of religious affiliation or knowledge of Hebrew; and students who demonstrate a genuine interest in Israel and Israeli society. The precise amount of scholarships will depend on the travel budgets of the proposals, as well as the number and quality of proposals received.

Application Process: <https://apps.carleton.edu/curricular/Judaic-Studies/paradiseapp/>

- Includes a statement explaining the educational experiences that have prepared you for the study in Israel and ways in which this off-campus experience will contribute to your education.
- Two reference forms from faculty, or one may be from a work supervisor, or a Rabbi or Religious educator who knows you well and understands your educational goals and capacity for studying, interning, or volunteering in Israel.

Note: Although a firm choice of a specific educational program is not required at the time of application, students are advised to explore study options in Israel with Professor Stacy Beckwith, Director Judaic Studies, LDC 261, before applying.

Application Deadline:

4:00 pm, March 8, 2019
