

Social support and coping are firmly connected to mental health outcomes of sexual assault (1).

Laura Riehle-Merrill, Carleton's Title IX Coordinator is dedicated to providing social support and resources for those affected by sexual misconduct. Meeting with the Title IX Coordinator does NOT initiate a formal complaint.

Based on the 2017-2018 Title IX Experience Survey...

100%

of surveyed reporters or friends agree that Laura treated them with respect and listened to their concerns of surveyed complainants agree that Laura treated them with respect and referred them to resources

100%

95%

of surveyed complainants agree that Laura responded to their concern promptly

Check out the Title IX Resource Card for a list of campus and community resources for those affected by sexual misconduct.

Concerned or unsure what to do?
Submit a Community Concern Form go.carleton.edu/ccf