

2014-15 Convocations

Presenters:

50% women / 50% men

58% non-white (African American, Hispanic, Native American, Asian American, Pakistani)

Issues/Topics addressed:

Agricultural Technology in Developing Countries	Identity
American Foreign Policy in the Middle East	Justice in the Workplace
Blackness in Slam and Spoken Word Poetry Communities	Latin-American Culture
Building Self-Esteem in Native American Youth	Mass Incarceration
Celebration of Mixed-Heritage Experience	Media Representations of Feminism
Civil Rights History	Music
Criminal Justice System	Oral Tradition
Cross Cultural Experiences	Perspectives of American Muslims
Diversity Education	Psychology of Belief
Documentary Filmmaking	Public Health
Educational Achievement Gap	Quantitative Reasoning
Empowerment of Girls	Racial Justice
Entrepreneurship	Reconciliation of Native and non-Native Communities
Environment	Repurposing Tech Hardware for Developing Countries
Experience of Being Gay as a Professional Athlete	Restaurant Workers Exploitation
Fitness and Healthy Eating	Science History
Food Policy	Superstition and Pseudoscience
Food Scarcity	Sweatshops
Forensic Science	Traditional Indian Music and Dance
Future of Islam, Muslims, and the West	Using Data for Social Change
Gender Equality	Using the Arts to Generate Dialogue on Differences
Global Economy	Worker Rights in the Global Economy

2015-16 Convocations

Presenters:

58% women / 42% men

35% non-white (African American, Hispanic, Native American, Asian American, Iranian American, Cuban, Haitian)

Issues/Topics addressed:

Academic Freedom	Law and Policy Related to the Internet
Body Image	Leadership
Cancer Research	Muslim-American Issues
Chemistry of Calm	Native American Culture and Heritage
Civil Rights	Network Neutrality
Documentary Filmmaking	Pipeline Safety
Eating Disorders	Politics
Environment	Power of Storytelling to Impact Change
Food Scarcity	Racial Justice
Free Speech in the Digital Era	Resilience in Response to Stress
Freedom of Expression	Responsible Citizenship
Genomics	Role of Education in Promoting Peace
Health	Science in Culture
Hip-Hop Culture	Sport Science
History	Sustainability
Hmong Culture	Technology
Identity-Based Conflicts and Wars	U.S. – Latin America Relations
Immigration	U.S. – Mexico Relations
Integration of Mind and Body	Violence Against Women and Girls
Journalism	Women in Science
Justice for Haiti

2016-17 Convocations

Presenters:

53% women / 47% men

57% non-white (African American, Hispanic, Native American, Asian American, Iraqi)

Issues/Topics addressed:

Activism	National Disaster Response
Anxiety and Depression	National Security
Civic Engagement	Partisanship in Society
Civil Rights	Perceptions of Gender, Beauty, and Power
Community Organizing	Polarization in Politics
Compassionate Listening and Healthy Discourse	Racial Justice
Cross Cultural Experiences	Religion
Cultural Appropriation	Representations of Black Masculinity
Cultural Dimension of Science	Science Education for Underrepresented Groups
Domestic Violence	Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM) Education and Careers
Economic Justice	Sexual Assault
Empowerment of Girls	Social Justice
Entrepreneurship	Stereotypes in Popular Culture
Food	Suicide Prevention
Healthcare	Technology
History	Terrorism
Human Trafficking	Traditional Chinese Music
Immigration	War Experiences of Soldiers and Civilians
Indigenous Cultures
Mental Health

2017-18 Convocations

Presenters:

50% women / 50% men

30% non-white (African American, Hispanic, Native American, Asian American, Cuban) International: British, Australian

Issues/Topics addressed:

Activism	Literature
College Access for Underrepresented Populations	Mass Incarceration
Civil Rights History	Microfinance
Comic Books	Neuroscience
Community Organizing	Outdoor Adventure
Consumption Economy	Partisan Politics
Criminal Justice	Physics
Dialogue across Difference	Protest and Democracy
Ethnic and Cultural Identity	Psychology of Evil
Filmmaking	Racism
Food Systems	Redefining the American Dream
Global Poverty	Religious Stereotypes
Globalization	Robotics
History	Social Justice
Immigration	Stress Causes and Effects
International Anti-Corruption	Sustainable Development
Journalistic Integrity	Wildlife Conservation
Liberal Arts	