CRITICAL LANGUAGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

William Wilder Bausch
McKenna A. Wirth

The CLS Program, part of a U.S. government effort to expand dramatically the number of Americans studying and mastering critical foreign languages, provides fully funded group-based intensive language instruction and structured cultural enrichment experiences for seven to ten weeks for U.S. citizen undergraduate and graduate students.

DAVIS PROJECTS FOR PEACE

Miles Bennet Allen
Delina Haileab
Ishmael Ali Maxwell
Noah Rosenfield
Michael Lyle Schultz

The Davis Projects for Peace Initiative allows students at schools associated with the Davis United World College Scholars Program to design and implement their own grassroots projects for peace. The initiative was established in 2007 by Kathryn Wasserman Davis in commemoration of her 100th birthday. Davis was a lifelong internationalist and philanthropist and the mother of Davis United World College Scholars Program namesake Shelby M.C. Davis.
FULBRIGHT FELLOWSHIP

Joshua Darnell Angevine
Zoe Elena Goldenberg-Hart
Sarah Elizabeth Grier

The Fulbright U.S. Student Program awards fellowships to college seniors and recent graduates to pursue independent research, graduate study, or English teaching in more than 140 countries worldwide. Funded jointly by the U.S. Department of State and host countries, it is the world’s largest educational and cultural exchange program.

BARRY M. GOLDWATER SCHOLARSHIP

Jahmaine Renzo Ocampo Yambing

The Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship and Excellence in Education Program was established by Congress in 1986 to honor former U.S. Senator Barry Goldwater. The scholarship is awarded competitively to highly qualified sophomores or juniors who demonstrate outstanding potential for academic study and research in mathematics, the natural sciences, or engineering.
MARSHALL SCHOLARSHIP

Ishmael Ali Maxwell

The Marshall Scholarship Program was created to honor the ideals of the Marshall Plan, which aided the recovery of Europe after World War II. The program provides distinguished young Americans with scholarship support for up to two years of graduate or undergraduate study in any discipline leading to a degree at a British university.

MINNESOTA SPACE GRANT CONSORTIUM AWARD

Natalie Jane Soehnlin
Emma Isabel Watson

The Minnesota Space Grant Consortium is part of the NASA Funded National Space Grant College and Fellowship Program established by Congress in 1988. The Consortium provides state-based, pre-college education, higher educational research opportunities for faculty and students, and public service activities related to aerospace science and engineering in order to further aerospace education in Minnesota.
NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION GRADUATE RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

John H. Heinzel
Ellen Marie Mamantov
Katherine C. Mateos

Awarded to support outstanding graduate students in NSF–supported STEM disciplines who are pursuing research-based master's or doctoral degrees at accredited U.S. institutions. Applicants must have demonstrated ability and special aptitude for advanced training in the sciences.

THE HARRY S. TRUMAN SCHOLARSHIP

Sagal Hassan Ahmed

The Harry S. Truman Scholarship, established by Congress in 1975 to honor the nation's 33rd president, is awarded competitively to highly qualified juniors who have a strong and demonstrated commitment to a career in public service. Firmly rooted in President Truman's belief that education promotes the general welfare of our country, the Truman Scholarship supports and encourages the future of public service leadership in the United States.
CAROLYN APPLEBAUM PRIZE IN THE ARTS

Ceile Reilly Kronick

The Carolyn Applebaum Prize in the Arts was established in 2014 by Dr. Mark S. Applebaum ’89 and Ms. Joan Friedman in memory of Carolyn Applebaum, Mark’s sister. Carolyn was devoted to theater and worked as a drama teacher. She was an advocate, cheerleader, mentor, and friend to her students. The prize recognizes students who have made a meaningful impact on the arts in student life.

Cindy Xinyi Guo
Ishmael Ali Maxwell
Lena Mackenzie Stein

This prize recognizes members of the senior class who have outstanding academic records and who have demonstrated excellence of thought and character. This prize was established in 1978 to honor the memory of Scott Tyler Bergner, son of Jeffrey T. Bergner ’69 and Susan D. Bergner ’69.
CLASS OF 1966 DIVERSITY OF ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Luis David Alvarez
Polycarpe Bagereka
Andrew Farias

The Class of 1966 Diversity of Achievement Award is given to Carleton students who have made a unique or distinctive contribution to the college or the community. The recipients have demonstrated excellence in their own way in such diverse areas as the arts, community service, student government, academic research, or other areas of contribution.

CLASS OF 1885 PRIZE

Natalie Samantha Marsh

Judged by members of the English department, this prize is awarded annually to the Carleton students who submit the best work of imagination in prose.

MARGARET DALTON CURRAN PRIZE

Elwood James Olson

Established in 1986 by family and friends of Margaret Dalton Curran ’26, this prize recognizes Curran’s lifelong interest in excellent writing, which she developed at Carleton. It is awarded annually by the English department faculty to students who submit the most accomplished academic essay.
DANA AWARD FOR PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENT

Sean Rindal Goodman Jr.
Spencer S. Lekki

Established in memory of the Reverend Malcolm McGregor Dana, who was a Carleton trustee from 1878 to 1888, this award is given to young men in the senior class who during four years at Carleton have achieved a balance of high scholarship, exceptional leadership abilities, and outstanding Christian character. The award is made in the hope that these qualities will be dedicated to public service.

DIMSDALE PRIZE FOR UNDERGRADUATE MEDICAL RESEARCH

Alec I. Jacobson

The Dimsdale Prize is awarded to students with outstanding academic achievement who are interested in pursuing a career in medicine. The prize, which is awarded to students who have completed at least their sophomore year, supports off-campus research or other experiences that would help prepare students for medical school.
MIKE EWERS AWARD FROM THE MINNESOTA SPACE GRANT CONSORTIUM

Allison Lynn Keen
Katherine Rose Oda

Established in 2008 in memory of Colin Michael “Mike” Ewers, who drowned in the Tanama River near Puerto Rico in 2003 while on a research trip to the Arecibo Radio Observatory. He would have graduated with the Class of 2004. This prize is awarded to junior or senior students involved in space-related research who best exemplify Ewers’s vision for the exploration of space and his enthusiasm for public outreach.

DAVID JOHN FIELD PRIZE

Rebecca Sternberg McCartney
Luke Norquist
Jelilat Ikeoluwakiishi Odubayo

This prize is awarded each year to members of the senior class whose nonathletic activities best exhibit the qualities of imagination, ingenuity, energy, verve, and zest for life that David Field ’64 exemplified while living joyfully with his fellow students.
LAURENCE MCKINLEY GOULD PRIZE IN NATURAL SCIENCE

April Reisenfeld
Irene M. Stoutland

This prize was established in 1979 to recognize the accomplishments made to science research and to liberal education by Laurence McKinley Gould, who served as Carleton’s president from 1945 to 1962. The prize is awarded annually to members of the senior class who have demonstrated excellence in experimental scientific research either in biology, chemistry, geology, physics, or psychology and who have studied one of the other humanities at a level well beyond the minimum college requirements.

HONORS IN INDEPENDENT STUDY

Cedar Perry Heffelfinger
Brooke Ashlyn McKelvey
Sophie Rogers
Benjamin A. Wightman

This award is presented for outstanding independent work. Such recognition is based solely on the excellence of the special project and is considered independently of a student’s academic average or other qualifying factors. The independent study project need not be in the student’s major field and may be awarded to a student in any class year.
JEFFERSON NATURAL SCIENCES TEACHING AWARD

Katherine Rose Oda

Given annually to current students who have demonstrated an interest in and capacity for teaching children or adults in the natural sciences, this award is named in honor of Constance Jefferson Sansome ’68 and her family, many of whom are or have been extraordinary teachers of the natural sciences. The award may be used for any purpose that furthers the student’s teaching career.

SIGRID AND ERLING LARSEN AWARD IN CREATIVE AND PERFORMING ARTS

Beatriz dos Santos Furtado

This award honors the memory of Sigrid Larsen ’61 and her father, Erling Larsen, professor of English at Carleton from 1956 to 1974. It is made annually to students who, either as creators or performers, have done the most memorable or distinguished work in literature, music, drama, art, dance, photography, or film.
HYME LOSS AWARD FOR GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT

Barbara Winter de Melo Lemos
Aaron Levi Forman
Marko Nicholas Jurkovich
Ishmael Ali Maxwell

The award was established in 2019 to honor Professor Hyme Loss, who joined the Carleton faculty in 1926 and brought experience and expertise to the foreign languages at Carleton. Loss spent time studying in France in an era when languages typically were taught by professors who had little experience abroad. He was fluent in French, Spanish, Italian, Hebrew, Yiddish, Latin, and Greek. The Hyme Loss Award for Global Engagement is given to seniors who demonstrate excellence beyond the existing Global Citizenship graduation requirement. It encourages students to go deeper in their foreign language acquisition, cultural immersion, global perspective-taking, and cross-cultural learning.

DAVID MAITLAND – ROBERT WILL PRIZE

Jancyn Irene Appel
Kenta Nogami Hikino

This prize honors Professor David J. Maitland and Professor Robert E. Will ’50, and recognizes qualities important in defining a Carleton education—in this instance, involvement in one’s community. It is awarded to students who are completing their sophomore year and have shown the greatest capacity for transforming their community through service.
MORTAR BOARD PRIZE

Aryan Arora
Grace D. Bassekle
Bryana K. Candelaria

The Mortar Board Prize, established by its members, is awarded each year for the purchase of books to a member or members of the previous first-year class who are outstanding in fields of leadership, scholarship, and service.

DACIE MOSES AWARD

Beatriz dos Santos Furtado

Established by the Alumni Association to celebrate the warmth, generosity, and hospitality of Candace K. “Dacie” Moses, who contributed so much to the lives of Carleton students, this award is given each year to the senior or seniors who most exemplify the characteristics of Dacie Moses.

JEAN SCHMIDT PRIZE

Irene M. Stoutland

Established in 1973 in memory of Jean Schmidt ’73, the prize is awarded each year to members of the graduating class who best exemplify Schmidt’s enthusiasm for learning and love of people.
SECOND CENTURY STUDENT AWARD

Andrew Farias
Alec I. Jacobson
Anna Michelle Schumacher
Christof Martin Zweifel

This award was established to honor Carleton students who have made an outstanding contribution to the college through significant service to others. The award is not intended to recognize academic or political success, but rather to honor service on or off campus that enriches and strengthens the institution and the lives of its members.

HARRIET SHERIDAN ENDOWED PRIZE

Lucas P. Demetriades
Lucy Ballard Griswold

This prize was established in honor of Harriet Sheridan, former acting president, dean, and professor of English, who had a major impact on the donors of this fund. The purpose of the prize is to recognize qualities that are important in defining a Carleton education—in this instance, writing ability.
STEWSIE SUSTAINABILITY AWARD

Alexandra Margaret Judith Brown Law

The Stewsie Sustainability Award is given to Carleton students whose character reflects the determination, conviction, and innovation of the lifelong service of Dresden Blake Stewart, better known as “Stewsie.” Concluding a varied career as superintendent of grounds, Stewsie served the college for more than 50 years, eventually receiving the title “landscape architect.” Never found without a shovel in hand, he was dedicated to improving his community’s environment and keeping strong his deep convictions about preserving the natural order of the local habitat.

STIMSON PRIZE

Noah Rosenfield

This prize was founded in 1873 by Carleton trustee Reverend Henry A. Stimson to encourage public speech. It is awarded to students who contribute most to the quality of debate or public speaking at the college.

SAMUEL STRAUSS PRIZE FOR HUMOROUS WRITING

Octavia Alina Washington

Endowed in 1982 by Robert S. Strauss ’73 in memory of his father, this prize is awarded to recognize accomplished humorous writing.
TECHNOS INTERNATIONAL PRIZE

Eunice Valenzuela

Presented to a graduating senior for outstanding academic achievement and a commitment to furthering the cause of international understanding, this award is balanced by a similar award given by Carleton to a student at Technos College in Tokyo.

CARLETON TONI AWARD IN THE ARTS

Michael Albrecht
Isabel McCarthy Anderson
Rose Alexa Delle Fave
Karah Lanai Haug
Ayaka Moriyama

This prize, established in 1996 in honor of Antoinette “Toni” Sostek, dance instructor at Carleton from 1971 to 1996, is awarded to juniors or seniors who embody the spirit of Sostek’s teachings through artistic expression. The following attributes summarize the people with that spirit: finds the fun in shared experience, understands that major challenges are overcome through small steps and small triumphs, exults in the joy of personal achievement, and does not let personal limitations or conventional wisdom discourage creative expression.
MARY WIESE ENDOWED PRIZE

Brittany Dominguez
Corrah DeAnne Gonzales-Lipham

Established in 1992 to honor the memory of Carleton employee and parent Maria “Mary” Eugenia Wiese, this prize honors Wiese’s respect for education, her profound love for students, and her understanding of the place of education in their futures. Qualities Wiese valued in others and that formed the core of her own character were cultural pride, kindness, perseverance, self-reliance, discipline, and respect and care for other people. This prize is awarded to graduating seniors who embody the above qualities and who have demonstrated perseverance in overcoming challenging circumstances. To honor the pride Wiese had in her Latino culture, preference is given to Latino students.
DEPARTMENTAL AND PROGRAM AWARDS, HONORS, AND PRIZES

RAJALETCHEMY BALASINGAM GENDER, WOMEN’S & SEXUALITY STUDIES

Alé Cota

The Rajaletchemy Balasingam Gender, Women’s & Sexuality Studies Prize was established in 2018 by Dashini Jeyathurai ’08 to honor the best academic writing in the Gender, Women’s & Sexuality Studies program. She named the prize after the first feminist in her life, her mother Rajaletchemy Balasingam. The prize recognizes a student in a Gender, Women’s & Sexuality Studies course that submits a superlative piece of academic writing.

JOHN K. BARE PRIZE IN PSYCHOLOGY

Allison Grace Corlett
Claire Yuan Guang

Established in 1983, this prize was created to honor Professor John Bare for his many contributions to his students, to Carleton’s Department of Psychology, and to teaching in American psychology more generally. The prize, endowed by his students, colleagues, friends, and family, is awarded to members of the senior class who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in the study of psychology.
CHARLES CARLIN PRIZE IN CHEMISTRY

Alexander M. Idrogo

This prize was established in 2011 by Charles H. Carlin, Charles “Jim” and Marjorie Kade Professor of the Sciences, Emeritus. The prize honors senior chemistry majors whose enjoyment of chemistry and gracious good humor has inspired and assisted others in the field.

MIKE CASPER AWARD

Alexandra Margaret Judith Brown Law

The Barry M. “Mike” Casper Award was established in 2011 by the environmental studies (ENTS) program to honor the memory of Mike Casper, professor of physics from 1966 to 2003 and long-time cornerstone of the environmental studies program at Carleton. This prize honors the graduating ENTS majors who best personify Professor Casper's commitment to superior academic achievement and his energy and leadership in support of understanding and protecting the environment.
ROY O. ELVETON PRIZE IN COGNITIVE SCIENCE AND PHILOSOPHY

Jacob Herman Winter

The prize was established in 2014 in commemoration of the retirement of Roy Elveton, the Maxine H. and Winston R. Wallin Professor of Philosophy and Cognitive Science, Emeritus. Elveton joined the faculty in 1968 and was instrumental in founding the interdisciplinary program in cognitive science at Carleton. The Roy Elveton Prize honors two senior students a year: the cognitive science student and philosophy student judged to excel in their senior integrative exercise.

JAMES FINHOLT PRIZE IN INORGANIC CHEMISTRY

Christof Martin Zweifel

This prize was established by friends and colleagues in honor of the 42 years of service of Professor James E. Finholt to the chemistry department at Carleton. The prize is awarded each year to graduating seniors who excelled in the study of inorganic chemistry and who share the type of enthusiasm and love of the molecular world exhibited by Professor Finholt.
WINFIELD A. FOREMAN JR. ’37 ENDOURED SCHOLARSHIP FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE IN ECONOMICS

Rebecca Jane Shapiro

This scholarship was created in 2005 by Winfield A. Foreman Jr.’s wife, Alice, in honor of her husband’s 90th birthday. Foreman graduated summa cum laude from Carleton in 1937 with a degree in economics. He became involved in a number of business enterprises including Foreman & Clark, a clothing company founded by his father, and later became vice president at John Wanamaker, a department store in Philadelphia. During World War II, Foreman served in the Navy and ended his military career as a Lieutenant Senior Grade. The Winfield A. Foreman Jr. ’37 Endowed Scholarship for Academic Excellence is awarded to economics majors who are U.S. citizens and demonstrate great academic promise. The scholarship encourages students to pursue community-inspired business and service, as modeled by Foreman.

STEVEN P. GALOVICH PRIZE IN MATHEMATICS

Marcella Azure Manivel

This prize was established in 2009 by the generosity of alumni and friends to honor the memory of Steve Galovich, professor of mathematics from 1974 to 1994. The prize honors graduating mathematics majors who best reflect Professor Galovich’s enthusiasm for and love of mathematics, zestful joy in life, sense of humor, and compassion for others.
TALIA GOLDENBERG ’12 AWARD IN STUDIO ART

Martha Jane Sudderth
Gavin Young

This award was established in 2014 to honor the memory of Talia Goldenberg ’12. Goldenberg exhibited delight in the world, compassion for others, and courage and tenacity in facing life’s challenges. This award recognizes senior studio art majors receiving distinction on their comprehensive exercise who also have extraordinary promise and embody Goldenberg’s spirit of community and humaneness. Selections are made by the art department.

ADA M. HARRISON PRIZE IN ECONOMICS

Cindy Xinyi Guo

This prize recognizes the outstanding academic achievements of graduating economics majors for coursework and independent study in the field of economics at Carleton. It publicly honors Professor Ada M. Harrison and was established in 1978 by her former students, friends, and colleagues at the time of her retirement from 30 years of distinguished service to Carleton.
HONORS IN MUSIC PERFORMANCE

Gregor Sean Dairaghi
Helen Juanita Keithahn
Qianzi Li
Rebecca Sternberg McCartney

This award celebrates music students, both majors and nonmajors, for excellence in performance and significant contributions as performers.

HUNTINGTON POETRY PRIZE

Octavia Alina Washington

Endowed in memory of George Huntington, poet, novelist, and professor of logic, rhetoric, and elocution at Carleton from 1879 to 1906, this prize recognizes distinguished work in poetry.

IAN KRAABEL MEMORIAL PRIZE

Alexander G. Chertoff

Established in 1987 by the classmates and friends of Ian Kraabel ’85, who died in an avalanche on Mount Baker in the summer of 1986, this award honors Kraabel’s unusual intensity, originality, and athletic ability. The prize is awarded each year by the history department to a major who best reflects Kraabel’s personal qualities and his desire to pursue knowledge and understanding.
JERRY MOHRIG PRIZE IN CHEMISTRY

Henock B. Befekadu

This prize was established in 2006 by friends and students of Jerry R. Mohrig, professor of chemistry from 1967 to 2003, in honor of his many contributions to Carleton. The award recognizes outstanding senior chemistry majors who have excelled in the study of chemistry and undergraduate scientific research. The award recognizes two hallmarks of excellence: achievement in formal academic coursework and success in a significant research experience.

EDWARD “TED” MULLIN MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP IN HISTORY

Leah R. Johnson
Miyuki Mihira

The Edward “Ted” Mullin Fellowship in History was established in memory of Mullin, who lost his life to cancer in September 2006 while he was a student at Carleton. The fellowship is awarded to junior history majors to support research opportunities in the field of history that enhance a student’s academic or broader learning journey. The fellowship recipients, selected by the history department, exemplify Mullin’s love of history, academic excellence, selflessness, courage, and tenacity.
DAVID POLLATSEK ’96 PRIZE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

Catalina Sarah Alvarez-Ruiz
Kaeden Christoffer Paine Berg
Lydia Wing Guy Chau
Gustavo Diaz Banuelos
Katherine Grossman
Mashnoon Ibtesum
Danny Maya
Virginia White

This prize, established in 2013 by family and friends of David Pollatsek ’96, is awarded each year to computer science majors who best reflect Pollatsek’s special strengths: intellectual curiosity, creativity, imaginative programming, love of art, and flair for design.

RACHEL ROSENFELD PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY

Anli Marie Gerbino
Alec Charles Morrissey

This prize was established in 2011 in memory of Rachel A. Rosenfeld ’70, professor of sociology at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. The prize is awarded each spring by the Department of Sociology and Anthropology to seniors who exhibit the most promise in making professional contributions in the areas of sociology or anthropology, a high level of intellectual curiosity, courage in the face of challenges, devotion to community, and enthusiasm for making connections between social theory and practice.
LEE SIGELMAN PRIZE

Hana Mensendieck

The Lee Sigelman Prize honors Professor of Political Science Lee Sigelman, who graduated from Carleton college in 1967 and served as the editor-in-chief of the American Political Science Review from 2001 to 2007. The prize recognizes the best paper written by a junior political science major.

BARDWELL SMITH PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN THE STUDY OF RELIGION

Tegan Rhea Carlson

Established in 2006 on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of Carleton’s religion department, this prize celebrates the leadership and career of Bardwell L. Smith, the John W. Nason Professor of Religion and Asian Studies, Emeritus. The award honors Professor Smith’s intellectual legacy of cross-cultural study and commitment to lifelong learning. The prize is awarded by the religion department to students who exhibit a passion for the life of the mind, a willingness to take intellectual risks, and a desire to grow and change as young scholars.
ELLEN ROGERS STEIF MEMORIAL AWARD

Marcella Marie Lees

Established by the family and friends of Ellen Steif ’77, who died in the fall of 1979, this award honors Steif’s interest in history and her personal courage in the face of death during a long and painful illness. The prize is awarded each year by the history department to history majors who best reflect Steif’s personal qualities and academic achievements.

DUNCAN STEWART FELLOWS

Jahmaine Renzo Ocampo Yambing

Each spring the geology department selects Duncan Stewart Fellows from the junior and senior classes. This fellowship was established in 1976 by Daniel Gainey ’49 in honor of Duncan Stewart, professor of geology at Carleton for nearly 25 years. The principal criteria for selection are excellence in scholarship, a high level of intellectual curiosity, potential for scientific growth, a demonstrated ability to work independently, and involvement in department activities.
ROBERT E. WILL ECONOMICS PRIZE

Rayna Aubrey Phelps

This prize was established by Robert E. Will ’50, Raymond Plank Professor of Incentive Economics, Emeritus, and Barbara Will to honor Professor Will’s 50th class reunion and his time spent at Carleton. The prize is awarded to senior economics majors who demonstrate excellent academic achievement and breadth of intellectual interests in the best tradition of the liberal arts education.

WILLIAMS-HARRIS PRIZE IN AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES

William Gillis Gleason

This prize was established on history professor Harry Williams’s 50th birthday to honor his mother, Edith Moselle Harris Williams (1931–1992); his grandmother, Patsy Harris Tunson (1914–1998); and his great-aunt, Ellen Harris Brooks (1909–1998). This prize recognizes their respect for the transformative power of education, the vast richness of their life experiences, and the strength of their character. The prize recognizes members of the senior class who have produced a distinguished integrative exercise on any aspect of the African American experience in the New World.
FELLOWSHIPS

CENTER FOR GLOBAL AND REGIONAL STUDIES JUNIOR RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

Suyang Hong

The goal of the Center for Global and Regional Studies Junior Research Fellowship is to aid students with work that deepens their understanding of local, regional, national, or international issues, especially when such issues have global implications.

CHANG-LAN FELLOWSHIP

Jerry Daniel Ashurst
Xueqi He
Caroline Grace Saksena
Mohammed Mehdi Shahid

Established in memory of Sing Chen Chang and Chien Wei Lan Chang by Judy Chang Wenderoth, parent of Michael Chang Wenderoth '93, the Chang-Lan Endowed Fund’s purpose is to promote cultural understanding between the United States and China. Chang-Lan Fellowships are awarded for personal or academic explorations pursued in China or for China-related projects conducted in Asia.
CLASS OF 1963 FELLOWSHIP

Jaxon Harris Alston
Skye Hikari Gulledge
Ben C. Perry
Yuanhao Zou

This fellowship was established by members of the Class of 1963 on the occasion of their 25th Reunion and provides opportunities for qualified students to pursue intellectual or creative interests.

DAVID C. DONELSON ’77 FELLOWSHIP

Lauren Claire Carothers-Liske
Ethan Terry Karp
Astrid Abigail Malter

The David C. Donelson ’77 Fund was established in memory of Donelson who treasured learning and a free spirit. The fellowship is intended to support the very spirit of a liberal arts education through the funding of a student or students to, in the words of Walt Whitman, “loaf and invite the soul” through a special project, trip, or other initiative. The award is meant simply to broaden intellectual, cultural, or creative horizons of its recipients.
FOUR FRIENDS FELLOWSHIP

Sophie Mohlenhoff Baggett
Kristin Summer Hultgren

The Four Friends Fellowship was established in 2012 with gifts to the college from Danal Abrams ’80, Jeff Appelquist ’80, Peter Ross ’80, and John Youngblood ’81 (collectively, the “Four Friends”) in appreciation for all the experiences they have had together since meeting at Carleton in the late 70s. The fellowship is awarded to a group of two or more Carleton students who propose a compelling, feasible experience off campus.

PROFESSOR ROY F. GROW FELLOWSHIP FUND

Jeremy Toshio Fong
Hana Sood Horiuchi
Tate Yee Johnson
Apoorba Misra
Madhav Mohan
Win Wen Ooi

Established in 2014, the Professor Roy F. Grow Fellowship Fund celebrates the career and life of Roy F. Grow, the Frank B. Kellogg Professor of International Relations. Created by Michael Hasenstab ’95 and Mary Ann Hasenstab, and contributed to by Grow’s many students, colleagues, family, and friends, the fund supports student fellowship and research opportunities in Asia.
DALE AND ELIZABETH HANSON FELLOWSHIP IN ETHICS

Samuel Cutler Blair
Konosuke Okada

This fellowship, made possible through the generosity of Dale Hanson ’60 and Elizabeth Hanson, supports student research in the field of ethics. Hanson Fellows partner closely with faculty members, and are expected to produce an academic paper, public presentation, or other product based on their research at the conclusion of the fellowship.

INDEPENDENT RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

Owen Kelly Brennan
Grace Evalyn Hague
Tyrone E. Quigley
Fabricio Rua-Sanchez
Michael Lyle Schultz
Adam David Smart
Samuel Wingfield

These fellowships are awarded to enable qualified students to carry out independent research activities in any field taught at the college or to undertake projects in the creative and performing arts.
The Kelley Fellowship was created to honor Paul and Lynn Kelley, who have done a great deal to support and promote cultural understanding, including medical travels to Central America, years-long service to indigenous and tribal peoples, AIDS work, and much more. The fund is intended to support students with financial need who are doing research fellowships abroad.
The Robert J. Kolenkow and Robert A. Reitz Fellowship for Student Scientific Research was established by David Ignat ’63 in 2007 to support students who are pursuing research projects during summer or winter breaks. The fellowship honors Ignat’s past mentors in the physics department at Carleton, professors Robert J. Kolenkow and Robert A. Reitz. The fellowship seeks to expand the opportunities for research beyond Carleton’s campus to research universities, including areas that are not always well represented at an undergraduate college.
LARSON INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP

Emily Noelyn Christiansen
Rebecca Marie Matousche Hicke
Stuart Donald Kraabel
Folasade Eunice Orepo-Orjay
Clara Estelle Posner
Molly Jess Zuckerman

This fellowship was established in 1986 by Robert Larson ’56, John Larson ’60, and David Larson ’63 in memory of their parents, Frances W. and Eugene Larson, who had a deep interest in Carleton and were champions of international understanding and involvement. The fellowship fund enables students with leadership promise to have a significant international summer experience.
The Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship program, which was established in 1989 and is funded by grants from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, provides mentoring and research opportunities for students who are committed to increasing the diversity of the American professoriate by pursuing doctorates in the humanities, select social sciences, and sciences, and eventually a career in higher education.
PAGLIA POST-BAC RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

Jessalyn Elise Ayars
Haoyang Li
April Reisenfeld

Established in 2020 with generous funding from Cathy James Paglia ’74 and Lou Paglia, this fellowship supports a two-year experience for up to three graduating seniors. STEM graduates with a strong interest in graduate study and a career in scientific research are awarded the fellowship to experience working life in a lab or research group at a U.S. Research One university, and gain skills and networking opportunities that will enhance their prospects for admission to graduate programs.

CARLETON SCIENCE FELLOWSHIP

Seth Peter Dorchen
Gustavo Adolfo Flores
Isabella Maria Vazquez
Augustus John Williams

Established in 2009, the Carleton Science Fellowship program serves to broaden participation of historically underrepresented groups in the sciences. The fellowship provides mentoring and two summers of research laboratory experience, and is supported by funding from the National Science Foundation.
Established in 2019, the Nancy Wilkie Fellowship for Archaeological Field Experience fund supports attendance at a field school or other archaeological field site. This fellowship was created by a generous gift from Nancy Wilkie, the William H. Laird Professor of Classics, Anthropology, and the Liberal Arts, Emerita, who taught at Carleton from 1974 to 2013.
