CAASHA
Spring 2021

CAASHA is a group of students dedicated to supporting and empowering Carleton students affected by—or with questions about—sexual harassment or assault.

We are trained to:
- Provide non-judgmental listening and support
- Offer information about additional resources both on and off campus
- Help students understand and navigate the sexual misconduct complaint process at Carleton

For more information, see our website (search “CAASHA” on the Carleton homepage), or email us at caasha.group@carleton.edu
