

FALL

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES IN EUROPE

*Utrecht/Amsterdam
Berlin, Krakow, Prague*

CARLETON
GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT

*Study and research abroad
with Carleton College*

One North College Street
Northfield MN 55057

(507) 222-4435

global@carleton.edu

go.carleton.edu/engage

Carleton is a top liberal arts college celebrated for its academic excellence and outstanding undergraduate teaching.

EXPLORE FEMINIST AND QUEER THEORY IN PRACTICE ACROSS EUROPE

Delve into practical and theoretical aspects of feminist and queer theory while conducting field research in the Netherlands, Germany, the Czech Republic, and Poland.

Since 1984, the Women's and Gender Studies in Europe (WGSE) program has offered students a unique opportunity to explore feminist and queer theory in practice across Western and East Central Europe. Interaction with academics, politicians, activists, and homestay hosts in Utrecht, Berlin, Prague, and Krakow encourages comparative approaches to independent research projects.

COURSES

- Situated Feminisms: Socio-Political Systems and Gender Issues Across Europe
- Cross-Cultural Feminist Methodologies
- Continental Feminist, Queer and Trans Theories
- Independent Field Research in Europe

CREDIT

Carleton College awards students the equivalent of 16 semester credits.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

March 15

LEARN MORE

go.carleton.edu/womenseurope

FALL

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES IN EUROPE

*Utrecht/Amsterdam
Berlin, Krakow, Prague*

OUR PROGRAM

This unique program examines the trends and dynamics of European social, economic, and political systems as they influence contemporary gender theory, policy, and women's identities. Students will explore leading theories in women's and gender studies, and go on to challenge themselves with self-designed independent research projects.

LOCATION

The program visits some of Europe's most dynamic and historic cities: Utrecht/Amsterdam, the Netherlands; Berlin, Germany; Prague, the Czech Republic; and Krakow, Poland.

COURSES

- Situated Feminisms: Socio-Political Systems and Gender Issues Across Europe
- Cross-Cultural Feminist Methodologies
- Continental Feminist, Queer and Trans Theories
- Independent Field Research in Europe

LANGUAGE

No prior foreign language experience is required.

INDEPENDENT RESEARCH

Participants conduct self-designed research on a topic within the field of women's and gender studies, such as LGBTQ Resources for Queer Youth Across Europe; Muslim Women's Issues in Europe; Sex Work and Trafficking; Violence Against Women.

CREDIT

Carleton College awards students the equivalent of 16 semester credits.

LEADERSHIP

The program is directed by Iveta Jusová, PhD, Professor of Women's and Gender Studies, Carleton College. Other instructors include lecturers from European universities, leaders of NGOs, politicians, and feminist and queer activists.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

March 15

LEARN MORE

go.carleton.edu/womenseurope

CARLETON GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT

*Study and research abroad
with Carleton College*

One North College Street
Northfield MN 55057

(507) 222-4435

global@carleton.edu

go.carleton.edu/engage

Carleton is a top liberal arts college celebrated for its academic excellence and outstanding undergraduate teaching.