

Hello, Classmates!

The leaves are turning (except in California). There's a bit of chill in the air in the morning. The tomato plants have stopped churning out offspring for the sacrifice. It must be that time again.

Save the date for Reunion: June 15-18, 2017

That's right, it's our 30th Reunion next year, and we'd like to celebrate it with you. And you. And you over there. In fact, we'd like to have a party with all of us. It's one of those parties where the more of us there are, the better it is for every one of us. It's like a pyramid scheme, but it's legal.

Sure, we have fewer follicles. And maybe a sprinkling (or dousing) of gray ones. But that only makes us more distinguished. Maybe now they'll take us seriously when we deliver our comps talks. But we're still the same people that bombed around the tunnels in the mid-80s, and we're still fun to hang out with. So please join us and let us hang out with you, too.

We're still working on the events for that weekend and will update you as we know more. In the meantime, please join the Facebook group with the rest of the class; it's a good place to interact with everyone, and it's where we'll post all of the updates as we get closer to the event. You can find the group on Facebook by clicking here, or by searching Facebook for "Carleton – Class of 1987". It's a closed group (no Oles allowed); just ask to join and our dedicated team of data entry personnel will make it happen. Over half the class is there already; we hope to see you there as well.

If you can't make it to the Facebook group, you can also check out our class website at carleton87.org, where we'll post the salient details about Reunion. But please do join the Facebook group. Even if you join Facebook just for this one thing, and even if you don't interact often, it's a good place for the community to hang out and exchange information. Or pictures. Or jokes. Or comments. Or likes. Or whatever.

Thanks,

Your 2017 Reunion Committee
