SECOND CENTURY STUDENT AWARD

Gifty Nwamaka Amos Nwankwo
Jonah Abraham Kan
Jessica B. Makori

This award was established to honor Carleton students who have made an outstanding contribution to the College through significant service to others. The award is not intended to recognize academic or political success, but rather to honor service on or off campus that enriches and strengthens the institution and the lives of its members.

HARRIET SHERIDAN ENDOWED PRIZE

Anna Martine Conley
Jennifer Leigh Portis

This prize was established in honor of Harriet Sheridan, former acting president, dean, and professor of English, who had a major impact on the donors of this fund. The purpose of the prize is to recognize qualities that are important in defining a Carleton education—in this instance, writing ability.
STEW SUSTAINABILITY AWARD

Alysala May Malik

The Stewsie Sustainability Award is given to Carleton students whose characters reflect the determination, conviction, and innovation of the lifelong service of Dresden Blake Stewart, better known as “Stewsie.” Concluding a varied career as superintendent of grounds, Stewsie served the College for more than 50 years, eventually receiving the title “landscape architect.” Never found without a shovel in hand, he was dedicated to improving his community’s environment and keeping strong his deep convictions about preserving the natural order of the local habitat.

TECHNOS INTERNATIONAL WEEK FELLOWS

Onelis Yarid Cardona
Jillian Hana Dano Yanai

The Tanaka Ikueikai Educational Trust invites two students and a faculty member from select institutions in the United States, England, and New Zealand to participate in Technos International Week. The two-week program encourages cultural understanding between the program’s guest participants and the students and faculty members of Technos College in Tokyo.
CARLETON TONI AWARD IN THE ARTS

Cristián Nicolás Castro-Brizendine
Lauren Hope Goboff
Erin Carol Gustafson
Cecilia Lofland Hart
Thu Quynh Nguyen

This prize, established in 1996 in honor of Antoinette (Toni) Sostek, dance instructor at Carleton from 1971 to 1996, is awarded to juniors or seniors who embody the spirit of Sostek's teachings through artistic expression. The following attributes summarize the people with that spirit: finds the fun in shared experience, understands that major challenges are overcome through small steps and small triumphs, exults in the joy of personal achievement, and does not let personal limitations or conventional wisdom discourage creative expression.

MARY WIESE ENDOWED PRIZE

Cristián Nicolás Castro-Brizendine
Fernando Jacobo Dominguez

Established in 1992 to honor the memory of Carleton employee and parent Maria “Mary” Eugenia Wiese, this prize honors Wiese’s respect for education, her profound love for students, and her understanding of the place of education in their futures. Qualities Wiese valued in others and that formed the core of her own character were cultural pride, kindness, perseverance, self-reliance, discipline, and respect and care for other people. This prize is awarded to graduating seniors who embody the above qualities and who have demonstrated perseverance in overcoming challenging circumstances. To honor the pride Wiese had in her Latino culture, preference is given to Latino students.

Elliott Guston Schwartz
Valerie Anna Umscheid

This prize was established in 2014 in commemoration of the retirement of Roy Elveton, the Maxine H. and Winston R. Wallin Professor of Philosophy and Cognitive Science, Emeritus. Roy joined the faculty in 1968 and was instrumental in founding the interdisciplinary program in cognitive science at Carleton. The Roy Elveton Prize honors two senior students a year: the cognitive science student and philosophy student judged to excel in their senior integrative exercise (comps).

JAMES FINHOLT PRIZE IN INORGANIC CHEMISTRY

Adam Kumar Nijhawan

This prize was established by friends and colleagues in honor of the 42 years of service of Professor James E. Finholt to the chemistry department at Carleton. The prize is awarded each year to graduating seniors who excelled in the study of inorganic chemistry and who share the type of enthusiasm and love of the molecular world exhibited by Professor Finholt.
WINFIELD A. FOREMAN JR. ’37 ENDOURED SCHOLARSHIP FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE IN ECONOMICS

IRIS DAHLEN ARBOGAST

This scholarship was created in 2005 by Mr. Foreman’s wife, Alice, in honor of her husband’s 90th birthday. Winfield A. Foreman Jr. graduated summa cum laude from Carleton in 1937 with a degree in economics. He became involved in a number of business enterprises including Foreman & Clark, a clothing company founded by his father, and later became vice president at John Wanamaker, a department store in Philadelphia. During WWII, Mr. Foreman served in the Navy and ended his military career as a Lieutenant Senior Grade. The Winfield A. Foreman Jr. ’37 Endowed Scholarship for Academic Excellence is awarded to economics majors who are U.S. citizens and demonstrate great academic promise. The scholarship encourages students to pursue community-inspired business and service, as modeled by Winfield A. Foreman Jr.

STEVEN P. GALOVICH PRIZE IN MATHEMATICS

IAN MIN GYU SEONG
JANNA WOLD WENNBERG

This prize was established in 2009 by the generosity of alumni and friends to honor the memory of Steve Galovich, professor of mathematics from 1974 to 1994. The prize honors graduating mathematics majors who best reflect Professor Galovich’s enthusiasm for and love of mathematics, zestful joy in life, sense of humor, and compassion for others.
TALIA GOLDENBERG ’12 AWARD IN STUDIO ART

Cristián Nicolás Castro-Brizendine

This award was established in 2014 to honor the memory of Talia Goldenberg ’12. Talia exhibited delight in the world, compassion for others, and courage and tenacity in facing life’s challenges. This award recognizes senior studio art majors receiving distinction on their comprehensive exercise who also have extraordinary promise and embody Talia’s spirit of community and humaneness. Selections are made by the art department.

ELE HANSEN AWARD

Antonia Margaret Henryka Piergies
Marly Michelle Schrom
Catherine Faith Skinner

This award is given annually to two senior female students who bring to sport the joy of participation and who have positively influenced others through their example, service, and leadership in the athletic or recreation program. This award also publicly honors Professor Eleanor Hansen, chair of the women’s physical education department from 1952 to 1986, in appreciation for the generosity, enthusiasm, and warmth she shared with generations of Carleton students. It is endowed by a fund created by her friends, colleagues, and former students at the time of her retirement in 1986.
ADA M. HARRISON PRIZE IN ECONOMICS

Fabio da Silva Soares
Pedro Girardi

This prize recognizes the outstanding academic achievements of graduating economics majors for coursework and independent study in the field of economics at Carleton. It publicly honors Professor Ada M. Harrison and was established in 1978 by her former students, friends, and colleagues at the time of her retirement from 30 years of distinguished service to Carleton.

HONORS IN MUSIC PERFORMANCE

Endowed in memory of George Huntington, poet, novelist, and professor of logic, rhetoric, and elocution at Carleton from 1879 to 1906, this prize recognizes distinguished work in poetry.
IAN KRAABEL MEMORIAL PRIZE

Ezra Dennis Sergent-Leventhal

Established in 1987 by the classmates and friends of Ian Kraabel ’85, who died in an avalanche on Mount Baker in the summer of 1986, this award honors Kraabel's unusual intensity, originality, and athletic ability. The prize is awarded each year by the history department to a major who best reflects Kraabel's personal qualities and his desire to pursue knowledge and understanding.

PAT LAMB AWARD

Mariannika Birgitta Martensson
Ziyi Wang

This award is given to outstanding senior female athletes who have achieved athletic excellence and a high level of academic achievement. Awards are given for both team sports and individual sports. The award publicly honors Pat Lamb, Carleton's first director of women's athletics from 1970-1985. Professor Lamb was an influential leader in the early development of increased opportunities for women not only at Carleton, but also at state, regional, and national levels. This award is endowed by a fund created by colleagues, former students, and friends upon Lamb's retirement in 1994.

JERRY MOHRIG PRIZE IN CHEMISTRY

Adam Kumar Nijhawan

This prize was established in 2006 by friends and students of Jerry R. Mohrig, professor of chemistry from 1967 to 2003, in honor of his many contributions to Carleton. The award recognizes outstanding senior chemistry majors who have excelled in the study of chemistry and undergraduate scientific research. The award recognizes two hallmarks of excellence: achievement in formal academic coursework and success in a significant research experience.
WILLIAM MUIR SCHOLARS

Maria Elizabeth Fairchild
Sarah Ann Newsham
Peter Maxwell Richieri

This fund was established in 1985 to support the biology department. The fund provides a stipend for outstanding juniors interested in plant sciences.

EDWARD “TED” MULLIN MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP IN HISTORY

Tyler John Hruby
Read Daniel Stafford Wilder

The Edward “Ted” Mullin Fellowship in History was established in memory of Ted, who lost his life to cancer in September 2006 while he was a student at Carleton. The fellowship is awarded to junior history majors to support research opportunities in the field of history that enhance a student’s academic or broader learning journey. The fellowship recipients, selected by the history department, exemplify Ted’s love of history, academic excellence, selflessness, courage, and tenacity.

JONATHAN PARADISE ISRAEL EXPERIENCE FUND

Danielle Sheila Rader
Michael Korte Walsh

This fund was established by Mansoor Alyeshmerni, Carleton’s Hebrew instructor for many years, to honor his teacher Professor Jonathan Paradise. Its purpose is to provide financial support to Carleton students who wish to learn more about the culture, history, and politics of Israel in order to better understand the global community in which we live. Students must study abroad in Israel in a structured educational program, which need not be through a university.
DAVID POLLATSEK ’96 PRIZE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

Anna Stengle Johnson

This prize, established in 2013 by family and friends of David Pollatsek ’96, is awarded each year to computer science majors who best reflect David's special strengths: his intellectual curiosity, his creativity, his imaginative programming, his love of art, and his flair for design.

WARREN RINGLIEN MEMORIAL PRIZE

Emily Kathryn Schwartz

The Warren Ringlien Memorial Prize honors graduating physics majors who have demonstrated the ability to construct complicated scientific instruments and then use them in real applications. Warren Ringlien was Carleton's instrument maker for many years, and had the ability to build wonderful devices for use in the sciences. This prize recognizes students who have similar skills.

RACHEL ROSENFELD PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY

Randa Almeda Larsen

This prize was established in 2011 in memory of Rachel A. Rosenfeld ’70, professor of sociology at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. The prize is awarded each spring by the Department of Sociology and Anthropology to seniors who exhibit the most promise in making professional contributions in the areas of sociology or anthropology, a high level of intellectual curiosity, courage in the face of challenges, devotion to community, and enthusiasm for making connections between social theory and practice.
LEE SIGELMAN PRIZE

Kirsten Rebecca Walters

The Lee Sigelman Prize honors Professor of Political Science Lee Sigelman, who graduated from Carleton College in 1967 and served as the editor-in-chief of the American Political Science Review from 2001-2007. The prize recognizes the best paper written by a junior political science major.

BARDWELL SMITH PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN THE STUDY OF RELIGION

Kate Hoeting

Established in 2006 on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of Carleton’s religion department, this prize celebrates the leadership and career of Bardwell L. Smith, the John W. Nason Professor of Religion and Asian Studies, Emeritus. The award honors Professor Smith’s intellectual legacy of cross-cultural study and commitment to lifelong learning. The prize is awarded by the religion department to students who exhibit a passion for the life of the mind, a willingness to take intellectual risks, and a desire to grow and change as young scholars.

ELLEN ROGERS STEIF MEMORIAL AWARD

Zobeida Elene Chaffee-Valdes

Established by the family and friends of Ellen Steif ’77, who died in the fall of 1979, this award honors Steif’s interest in history and her personal courage in the face of death during a long and painful illness. The prize is awarded each year by the history department to history majors who best reflect Steif’s personal qualities and academic achievements.
DUNCAN STEWART FELLOWS
