

Third Center Fund Bylaws:

“The Third Center Fund shall foster community by funding social events that connect students with faculty, administrators, trustees, staff, and alumni. The Fund shall not fund any event with more than six students per faculty, trustee, administrator, staff member, or alum” (Article III F 1 c).

Third Center Fund Guidelines:

1. A funded event will consist of at least six people.
2. A funded event will consist of at least one faculty, staff, or trustee for each six students present (i. e. a 1 to 6 ratio).
3. Third Third Center Funds will not purchase alcohol.
4. The Third Center Fund will not fund events retroactively (i.e. that have already taken place).
5. The Third Center Fund will not promote activities related to a specific class (i.e. anything on a syllabus).
6. No CSA chartered organization will receive grants from the Third Center Fund for activities not demonstrated to fulfill the intent of the fund and purpose of the group.
7. Requests will not be funded for more than $10 to $12 per person.
