

Cowboy Steve!

October 2019

Dear Carleton Class of '95,

Before October meant Pumpkin Spice everything, it was the time we committed to First Trimester classes. The end of Drop/Add and Scrunch decisions meant make or break.

Remember the Autumn parts of your Carleton Story?

- ◆ The thwack of a caught Frisbee
- ◆ Heading to a SUMO movie in Olin on the weekend
- ◆ Switching to your winter coat
- ◆ Leaves falling then snow falling then more snow falling

We all have our own memories and stories to share. Wouldn't it be nice to head back to Carleton to hang out with old friends? Many of our classmates have started organizing our 25th Class Reunion and are already making plans to attend. Have you looked at who's coming? While you're checking out the list, let us know that you'll be coming too. We can't wait to see you June 18-21, 2020!

Now's your chance to share updates in the Bio Book as Our Story Continues. Fun fact: if just a $\frac{1}{3}$ of us complete the Bio Book questionnaire, we will be able to have our very own copies printed - a slice of each of our stories to save from our 25th!

If you are ready to make your plans to attend Reunion, here's what you need to know about housing: limited campus housing will be available, with Burton and Sevy dormitories for our class. For those who don't want to return to a world of twin beds and no air conditioning, some hotels are available in Northfield, as well as a little farther out in Faribault, Lakeville, Burnsville, and the Twin Cities area. With advance notice you can also find airbnbs. Check here for more details on housing during Reunion.

Stay in touch, follow below and hope to see you soon!

Remember when it snowed on Halloween? Read the Carletonian article!
