THE BEST OF ANCIENT EGYPT

January 3 – 18, 2016 (16 days) with former Carleton President Robert Oden, Jr.

and an optional post-tour extension to Jordan

Travel with former Carleton President Robert Oden, Jr., on our meticulously-planned itinerary, featuring premium accommodations and a deluxe, 4-night Nile River cruise. Visit all the preeminent sites of the pharaohs from Cairo to Luxor, Aswan, and Abu Simbel including, thanks to special permissions granted to our group, the stunning tombs of Seti I and Nefertari.

THE BEST OF ANCIENT EGYPT

Dear Carleton College Alumni and Friends,

I am pleased to invite you to join former Carleton President Rob Oden, Jr., to experience the best of ancient Egypt on this extensive 16-day program that explores Egypt's cultural, historical, and intellectual heart.

You will travel with a top-notch team of experts, including our congenial Carleton hosts, Rob and Teresa Oden, who invite you to join them for an unforgettable experience designed for intrepid minds and curious souls. Rob will share insights about ancient Egypt and its influences via illustrated lectures and ongoing conversations throughout the tour. In addition, a superb Egyptian guide will accompany you on all excursions and a professional trip manager will handle all of the travel logistics and details.

Visit sites and museums that no trip to Egypt would be complete without. Plus, thanks to special permissions granted to our group, visit two tombs that are closed to the public: the spectacular Tomb of Seti I and the Tomb of Nefertari (often called the most beautiful tomb in Egypt).

Delight in the ambiance and elegance of some of Egypt's finest hotels, as well as a luxurious four-night Nile cruise aboard a five-star riverboat.

Every detail has been carefully planned to maximize your sightseeing time. Four flights within Egypt are included, as well as all meals, excursions, airport transfers in Egypt, and tips for group services, to allow you peace of mind, time, and energy to thoroughly immerse yourself in your travel experiences.

We hope that you will join fellow Carls for this special adventure at the start of our sesquicentennial year!

Sincerely,

Robert D. Smulian, Class of '78
President, Carleton College Alumni Association

ITINERARY

(B)= Breakfast, (L)= Lunch, (R)= Reception, (D)= Dinner

Sunday, January 3, 2016: Depart Home

Monday, January 4: Arrive Cairo, EGYPT

Upon arrival at Cairo's airport you will be met and transferred to our palatial hotel, set amid forty acres of gardens, located less than half a mile from the Giza pyramids. Gather this evening for a welcome reception and dinner. Overnight at the Mena House for three nights. (R,D)

Tuesday, January 5: Cairo | Giza Plateau | Cairo

Today explore the Giza Plateau, including the Great Pyramid of Khufu, Solar Boat Museum, tombs in the Eastern Cemetery, and the vibrantly decorated mastaba of Meresankh III. After lunch nearby, take a walking tour of the pyramids and remains of the mortuary temples of Khafra and Menkaura, ending at the Sphinx and Valley Temple of Khafra. (B,L,D)

(Top) The Step Pyramid of Djoser, Saqqara.
(Below) The Sphinx and the pyramids at Giza.

Wednesday, January 6: Cairo | Saqqara | Serrapeum | Cairo

Visit the necropolis at Saqqara, with its Step Pyramid of Djoser, Pyramid of Teti, tomb of Mereruka, pyramid temple and causeway of Unas, and Tomb of the Two “Brothers.” A short drive takes us to the fascinating Serrapeum, ancient burial place of the sacred (and mummified!) Apis bulls. Also visit the Mastaba of Ti, whose wall paintings are rich with imagery of daily life in ancient Egypt. (B,L,D)

Thursday, January 7: Cairo | Egyptian Museum | Luxor (East Bank)

Spend the morning at the Egyptian Museum, which houses the celebrated treasures of Tutankhamen and the Royal Mummy Room. After lunch, transfer to the airport and fly to Luxor. Check in to our elegant hotel on the east bank of the Nile and have dinner. Overnight at the Old Winter Palace Hotel for two nights. (B,L,D)

Friday, January 8: Luxor | Karnak | Luxor Temple | Luxor

A short drive brings us to Karnak, the world’s largest temple complex (built over the course of a thousand years), where a generous amount of time is scheduled for exploring. Our visit will include Karnak’s Open Air Museum as well as the newly-opened temple of the goddess Mut. Return to our hotel for a late lunch and enjoy the afternoon at leisure. This evening, stroll to nearby Luxor Temple. (B,L,D)

Saturday, January 9: Luxor (West Bank) | Valley of the Kings | Deir el Bahari | Luxor

Drive, or take an optional hike on the ancient workers’ trail, to the Valley of the Kings. There we will explore the legendary Tomb of Tutankhamen and the spectacular Tomb of Seti I (special access visit, closed to the public). After lunch, visit the mortuary temple of Hatshepsut at Deir el Bahari, and then check-in to our oasis-like hotel on the Nile’s west bank, which provides convenient access to the sites we visit over the next two days. Overnight at the Hotel Al Moudira for two nights. (B,L,D)

Sunday, January 10: Luxor | Abydos | Dendara | Luxor

Drive through the countryside to visit two of Egypt’s most spectacular and under-visited sites: Abydos, traditional burial ground of the god Osiris, which was a necropolis for 4,500 years; and Dendara, whose Temple of Hathor has been extensively restored. Return to our hotel, where we can relax and enjoy dinner this evening. (B,L,D)

Monday, January 11: Luxor | Valley of the Queens | Deir el Medina | Luxor (East Bank) | Embarkation

Spend the morning in the Valley of the Queens, visiting the Tomb of Khaemwaset, a young son of Ramses III; and the Tomb of Nefertari (special access visit, closed to the public), often called the most beautiful tomb in Egypt. Continue on to Deir el Medina, ancient village of the workers who built the pharaohs’ tombs, and visit the beautifully preserved Tomb of Sennedjem. After a visit to the tomb of Ramose, embark our deluxe Nile cruise boat and have lunch before visiting the small but excellent Luxor Museum. Overnight aboard the 5-star M/S Royal Lily for four nights. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, January 12: Nile Cruising | Edfu

Enjoy a day at leisure, cruising the Nile to Edfu, where we dock for the night. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, January 13: Edfu | Kom Ombo | Aswan

Disembark this morning for a visit to Edfu, where horse-drawn carriages will take us to the Temple of Horus, the best-preserved temple on the Nile. Continue cruising, making one stop to visit the twin Temples of Sobek and Horus at Kom Ombo, arriving in Aswan after dark. (B,L,D)

Thursday, January 14: Aswan

Take a morning excursion to the ancient granite quarry with the “unfinished obelisk,” and a short boat ride to the Temple of Isis at Philae, said to be Egypt’s most beautiful temple. After lunch, enjoy a guided walk through Aswan’s suq, the most charming and traditional of Egypt’s markets. (B,L,D)

(Above) The Tomb of Seti I (closed to the public), which you will visit on January 9th, is the most complex tomb ever built in the Valley of the Kings.

Visit the less frequented yet magnificent temples at Abydos (above left), and Dendara (above right). Below: An image from within the Tomb of Nefertari (closed to the public) which you will visit on January 11th.

Friday, January 15: Aswan | Disembarkation

Disembark our Nile cruise boat this morning and board feluccas (small, traditional sailing vessels) to visit the archaeological site and small museum on Elephantine Island; as well as Qubbet el-Hawa, site of the rock-cut tombs on the West Bank. After lunch, check in to our beautiful, recently renovated hotel on the Nile, where we have some time to relax and enjoy the property. Overnight at the New Cataract Hotel for two nights. (B,L,D)

Saturday, January 16: Aswan | Abu Simbel | Aswan

Take a short flight to Abu Simbel to visit the two rock-cut temples of Ramses II, built to honor himself and his queen, Nefertari. Moved when the Aswan High Dam was built, they are a marvel of ancient and modern engineering. Fly back to Aswan this afternoon and visit the elegant Nubia Museum, exhibiting artifacts recovered during the excavations of sites that were threatened by the construction of the High Dam. (B,L,D)

Sunday, January 17: Aswan | Cairo

Fly to Cairo this morning and check-in to our luxurious new airport hotel, featuring fully soundproofed rooms and direct access to Terminal 3 via footbridge. After lunch and a stroll in the Khan el Khalili bazaar, walk through medieval Cairo, including visits to a couple of its beautiful mosques. This evening, enjoy a farewell reception and dinner at our hotel. Overnight at Le Méridien Cairo Airport. (B,L,R,D)

Monday, January 18: Cairo | Home or Jordan

Check out this morning and enter the airport to catch flights homeward or, for those on the Jordan extension, our flight to Amman. (B)

OPTIONAL JORDAN EXTENSION

January 18-22, 2016 (5 days)

Jordan is home to great cultural wonders, warm and hospitable people, and stunning desert and mountain landscapes. On this four-night itinerary you will explore superb ancient and early Christian sites, as well as the modern Arab city of Amman:

- Marvel at the ancient Nabataean city of Petra, which was carved into the rose-red desert sandstone more than 2,000 years ago and is today a UNESCO World Heritage site.
- Take a city tour of Amman, including its Citadel, old Roman city, and modern city.
- Visit Madaba, which contains the most impressive work of art to survive from the mid-6th century: a mosaic map of the ancient Holy Land, the oldest one in existence.
- Admire the views from Mt. Nebo, from where Moses is said to have gotten his first glimpse of the Promised Land.
- Explore the impressive Roman ruins of Jerash, nestled in a green, fertile valley.

Enjoy fine accommodations and meals, plus (with five or more participants) travel and learn with Carleton hosts Rob and Teresa Oden and an excellent local guide, making this an exceptional opportunity to witness some of Jordan's greatest highlights.

CARLETON STUDY LEADER & HOST

Robert A. Oden, Jr., retired on July 1, 2010 from the Presidency of Carleton College, a position he had held since 2002. Previously, he served as the President of Kenyon College and, from 1975 to 1989, he was a Professor of Religion at Dartmouth College. Rob's chief research interests are in Near Eastern languages, history, and religion, and he is the author of five books and more than 100 scholarly articles. He reads most of the languages of the ancient Near East, including Akkadian, Egyptian Hieroglyphs, Canaanite/Phoenician, and Nabataean. Rob has led numerous alumni trips to Egypt and to Turkey and the former Ottoman Empire for Dartmouth and Carleton, and in the Winter Term of 2008 he led and taught a Carleton Off-Campus Studies Program in Egypt. He served as a Trustee of the American University in Cairo for 25 years, and is today the Chair of the Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center Board of Trustees and a Trustee of the American Schools of Oriental Research.

Teresa Oden was the administrator of a small foundation for a dozen years, before turning to historical research. She has written magazine articles and plays based on the history of towns where she has lived. In 2007 she published Spousework: Partners Supporting Academic Leaders, a book which offers insight into the lives of college presidents and their families.

What to Expect: You must be in good physical condition to participate. You must be able to make long walks unassisted over uneven terrain and up and down steps. There can be considerable uneven ground and some site visits can easily last two hours. Please inform us if you have any disabilities that may prevent you from participating in these excursions. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand, and discuss whether or not this program is appropriate for you. All participants are expected to be ready to experience cultural differences. In January, Egypt's weather is sunny and dry, with average daytime temperatures in the mid-60s to high 70s F. Average daytime temperatures in Jordan are in the low- to mid-50s F. Complete pre-departure details, what to bring with you, and what to expect will be sent to participants.

Cancellation and Refunds: All requests for cancellations must be received in writing. Cancellations received at least ninety (90) days prior to departure will receive a full refund less a $300 per person administrative fee. Cancellations received between sixty (60) and eighty nine (89) days prior to departure are subject to a cancellation fee of $1,000 per person. No refunds will be made for cancellations received within sixty (60) days prior to departure. Prices quoted are based on group participation and no refunds will be made for any part of the program in which you choose not to participate. Refunds cannot be made to passengers who do not complete the tour for whatever reason. You are strongly encouraged to obtain trip cancellation insurance (an application will be sent with confirmation of receipt of your deposit).

Air Arrangements and Transfers: International round-trip airfare from home to Cairo and round-trip airfare from Cairo to Amman (for the extension) is not included. Complimentary transfers in Egypt and Jordan (for the extension) on arrival and departure are included. Once you have received your final payment invoice, you should book your flights. If you are considering booking your flights before this time, please contact our office first. We do not accept liability for cancellation penalties related to domestic or international airline tickets.

Prices quoted are based on group participation and no refunds will be made for any part of the program in which you choose not to participate. It is understood that refunds cannot be made to passengers who do not complete the tour for whatever reason nor to passengers whose required documentation for entry into any country on the itinerary is delayed or denied. RESPONSIBILITY: Carleton College and its agent, Eos Study Tours (hereinafter "Sponsors"), and the tour operator, and/or its agents (hereinafter "Operator") assume no liability for failure to provide the services, transportation, lecturers and accommodations referred to in this brochure to the extent that such services and accommodations cannot be supplied due to delays or other causes beyond the control of Operator, which include but are not limited to sickness, epidemics, pandemics, weather, strike, war, civil disturbances, acts or threats of terrorism, travel warnings or bans, termination or suspension of war risks or other carrier insurance, quarantine, and acts of God. In the absence of negligence on the part of Operator, the participant agrees that Operator has no responsibility or liability of any nature whatsoever for damage to or loss of property, or injury to, or death of persons due to any act, omission or negligence of any carrier, hotel, restaurant, bus carrier, tender service, sightseeing company, or any other persons rendering any of the services or ground portions of the itinerary. The participant further waives any claim against Operator and Sponsors for any such damage, loss, injury or death. Operator and Sponsors shall not be responsible for any additional expenses, delays, substitution of equipment, and/or any act or omission whatsoever by the suppliers of such services, their agents, servants and employees, and the participant hereby waives any claim arising there from. Operator and Sponsors reserve the right to decline, accept or retain any participant at any time. Sponsors and Operator reserve the right to cancel this tour prior to departure, in which case payment will be refunded without further obligation on our part, except when trip cancellation, itinerary changes and/or delays are mandated by any of the aforesaid causes beyond our control, the passenger shall have the option of accepting in lieu of the original tour such rescheduled tour or other substituted tour(s) as may be offered by us, or else, receiving a refund of as much of such advance tour expenditures as Operator and Sponsors are able to recover on the passenger's behalf from carriers, third-party tour vendors, etc., but, Operator and Sponsors shall not have any obligation or liability to the passenger beyond the foregoing. All refunds of passenger payments are the responsibility of Eos and/or the Operator, and the participant agrees that Carleton College bears no financial responsibility for refunding of participant's payments. The passenger contract in use by the carriers concerned (when issued) shall constitute the sole contract between the transportation companies (such as ship operators and airlines) and the purchaser of this tour and/or passage. Participants are encouraged to purchase airline tickets no sooner than 60 days before the tour begins to avoid airline cancellation penalties if a tour is canceled or otherwise modified subsequent to the participant's purchase of those tickets. Sponsors and Operator accept no liability for the purchase of non-refundable airline tickets to the tour departure city and return. Baggage and personal effects are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. By forwarding of deposit, the passenger certifies that he/she agrees with these terms and conditions, and that he/she does not have any mental, physical or other condition or disability that would create a hazard for him/herself or other passengers. Itinerary: Sponsors and Operator reserve the right to change the itinerary due to weather conditions, availability of anchorages, political conditions and other factors beyond our control without consulting the participants. Participants have no right to any refund or other considerations in the event of these itinerary changes. Rates are based on tariffs and exchange rates in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change prior to departure. Substantial changes in tariffs, exchange rates, the price of fuel, services and labor may increase the cost of arrangements significantly, and we reserve the right to alter our prices. AS A CONDITION OF ACCEPTANCE, EACH PARTICIPANT MUST AGREE TO AND SIGN THE FOLLOWING RELEASE OF LIABILITY: RELEASE: Notwithstanding anything set forth above or otherwise contained herein, the signatory clearly understands that the Sponsors are in no way responsible and can assume no liability of any nature whatsoever for the tour and any acts, omissions or negligence by the Operator or by companies and persons with whom the Operator may contract. The signatory has carefully read the list of activities, requirements and conditions as listed in the brochure and application for the tour and is/are aware that the tour and its activities involve the risk of personal injury or death and damage or loss of property. In consideration of the benefits to be derived from participation in the tour, the signatory voluntarily accepts all risk of personal injury or death and property damage or other loss arising from participation on the tour and hereby agrees that he/she and his/her dependents, heirs, executors and assigns, do release and hold harmless Sponsors and the employees, officers, directors, trustees or representatives of Sponsors, from any and all claims, including claims of negligence, illness, personal injury, death or property damage or loss, however caused, arising from or related to this tour. The signatory has read carefully this agreement, and will abide by the conditions set by Sponsors and the Operator as described in the brochure and in the Terms and Conditions of this and other sections as stated herein or elsewhere published. The signatory affirms that he/she has not received or relied on any oral or written representation of Sponsors as a basis for executing this Release.
