VALUE-PRICED Premium Learning Adventure

Dear Carleton College Alumni and Friends,

You are invited to join Carleton College Professor Emerita Nancy Wilkie on a splendid ten-night voyage aboard the elegant, 216-cabin Aegean Odyssey. Begin in Venice and end in Athens, exploring the fabled Dalmatian coast along the way.

The Aegean Odyssey is small enough to call at ports that are inaccessible to the 'mega-ships,' but large enough to offer a selection of amenities, including two dining venues, a spacious theater for lectures and musical performances, several comfortable lounges and bars, a relaxing spa center, and a well-stocked library. Her cabins are spacious, modern, and intelligently designed, and you can choose from a wide range of cabin types, from inside cabins, to cabins with portholes or picture windows, to luxurious suites with balconies.

Embark in storied Venice, and after your choice of morning excursions you will have the balance of the day to pursue your own interests in the city. In Urbino, discover the great masterpieces of the Renaissance, then visit Diocletian's massive palace in Split, Croatia. Meander through the beautiful, historic town of Dubrovnik before cruising through the dramatic scenery of Kotor Bay. After visiting the vast ancient ruins of Butrint, Albania, continue cruising to Greece, where you will explore ancient Olympia, birthplace of the Olympics; and Monemvasia, the "Gibraltar of the Aegean," a tiny municipality joined to the mainland by a single causeway. Disembark in Athens and spend two nights at a centrally-located, 4-star hotel, with time to see the capital's magnificent classical treasures, including, of course, the Acropolis.

This is a value-priced educational travel program, and early booking discounts called Saver Fares may be applied. These discounts are subject to change and capacity controlled, and may be withdrawn at any time subject to market demand. Once withdrawn, Full Fares will apply.

This program includes all meals aboard ship, nearly all shore excursions, a series of onboard lectures, and much more. This is not an exclusive Carleton program and the Saver Fares may be withdrawn at any time, so I encourage you to reserve your preferred cabin today.

Sincerely,

Derek Fried '93
President, Carleton College Alumni Association

What to Expect

This unique program will be aboard the 216-cabin Aegean Odyssey for 10 nights plus two nights in a 4-star hotel in Athens. Daily excursions feature extensive sightseeing and require a certain level of fitness and mobility. A minimum expected level of fitness would be the ability to walk one to two miles within a period of two to three hours; ascend and/or descend multiple flights of stairs without assistance; and walk easily and comfortably along uneven, slightly hilly, and/or unstable surfaces. Also, some ports on the cruise itinerary may require transport to/from land via the ship's or local tenders, so you must be able to step down 1' or 2' into or out of boats, or onto floating platforms or piers. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. Anyone who is not able to walk unassisted for extended periods is kindly advised not to join. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand, and discuss whether or not the program is appropriate for you. Aboard the Aegean Odyssey there is internet service on Belvedere Deck and Wifi is available in designated areas (charges may apply). In this region, at this time of year, average daily temperatures tend to range from the low 50s to the low 80s (F). Complete pre-departure details, such as what to pack and more of what to expect, will be sent to participants.

Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance (for example, the need of a wheelchair) must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Participants requiring assistance must travel with a companion who will assist them throughout and will be responsible for handling equipment. Participants must be able to embark or disembark motor coaches alone or with minimal assistance from their traveling companion, and climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. REFUNDS: Prices quoted are based on group participation. No refunds will be made for any part of the program in which participants choose not to participate. Refunds cannot be made to participants who do not complete the tour for any reason, nor to participants whose entry into any country on the itinerary is delayed or denied. TRIP INSURANCE: Sponsor strongly recommends that participants purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available through Sponsor and others and covers certain expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident and damaged or lost luggage. Sponsor will send participants an application upon receipt of their reservation. RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to changes at any time. On all programs, even after full payment, Sponsor reserves the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, tax increases, currency fluctuations or fuel and energy surcharges, and all such increases are to be paid to Sponsor upon notice to the participant of such increases. FORUM AND METHODOLOGY FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Any dispute or claim which refers or relates to this contract, any literature related to the trip, or the trip itself shall be litigated solely and exclusively in and for courts in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive and procedural New Hampshire law, and for this limited purpose, the parties agree to exclusive venue and personal jurisdiction therein. At the participant's option, however, in lieu of litigation, Sponsor will agree to binding arbitration in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive, but not procedural, New Hampshire law, pursuant to the then existing commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association. In any such arbitration, the arbitrator, and not any federal, state, or local court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: Sponsor reserves the right to cancel this tour prior to departure, in which case payment will be refunded without further obligation on our part. However, if trip cancellation, itinerary changes, and/or delays are mandated by causes beyond our control, the participant shall have the option of accepting in lieu of the original tour such rescheduled tour or other substituted tour(s) as may be offered by Sponsor, or else, receiving a refund of as much of such advance tour expenditures as Sponsor is able to recover on the participant's behalf from carriers, third-party tour vendors, etc. Sponsor, however, shall not have any obligation or liability to the participant beyond the foregoing. U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT & CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL: Both the U.S. State Department and the Centers for Disease Control publish and update important country-specific information for travelers. We strongly recommend that you review them. They can presently be found at: <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html> and <https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices>. MISCELLANEOUS: Participants should not purchase airline tickets prior to receiving your final payment invoice so as to avoid airline cancellation penalties if a tour is canceled or otherwise modified subsequent to the participant's purchase of those tickets. Baggage and personal effects are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. If, due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers, and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. Sponsor reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any participant at any time. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person it judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders, or third parties, or who is determined to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel. APPEARING IN PHOTOS: Photos from Alumni Adventures' trips may be posted on photo-sharing web sites or on social networking sites. Your likeness may appear in some photos or videos, posted either by other travelers or tour lecturers/guides, and the circulation of the materials could be worldwide. Trip photos may also be selected to appear in future Alumni Adventures promotions; no compensation is available for appearing in a trip photo used for promotional purposes.
