Carleton Faculty Leaders

Alfred P. Montero is Associate Dean and Director of Advising, and the Frank B. Kellogg Chair of Political Science at Carleton College; and the senior editor of the refereed journal Latin American Politics and Society. His main research areas are the political economy of Latin American countries and the quality of democracy. Al is the author of Brazil: Reversal of Fortune (Polity Press, 2014), Brazilian Politics: Reforming a Democratic State in a Changing World (Polity Press, 2006), Shifting States in Global Markets: Subnational Industrial Policy in Contemporary Brazil and Spain (Penn State University Press, 2002), and he is co-editor with David J. Samuels of Decentralization and Democracy in Latin America (University of Notre Dame Press, 2004). Al has accompanied a number of previous Alumni Adventures, including both land tours and small-ship cruises in Cuba, Peru, Panama, and Costa Rica.

Joel Weisberg is the Herman and Gertrude Mosier Stark Professor of Physics and Astronomy and the Natural Sciences, Emeritus, at Carleton College. Joel taught astronomy and physics courses, and also taught several multidisciplinary courses in the areas of environmental and technology studies and in science policy. "Cosmology," which focused on Maya and modern ideas of the nature of the universe, was one of his favorite courses to teach, and he especially looks forward to sharing his knowledge of Maya cosmology and astronomical sites with trip participants. His research is in the area of radio astronomy, particularly in the study of pulsars, which are rapidly spinning neutron stars the size of Northfield containing more mass than the Sun. Joel still maintains astrophysical research positions for students, often enabling them to travel to various radio observatories throughout the world. He has co-authored 68 scientific articles with colleagues across the world and with Carleton students. Joel loves to share sunsets and the night sky with others and has done so on numerous other alumni journeys, including tours in Hawaii and Chile.

Dear Carleton College Alumni and Friends,

We're moving forward optimistically to offer you a fantastic Alumni Adventure to Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula. Given the uncertainties in relation to the COVID-19 pandemic, you may now cancel six months prior to departure (June 2, 2021) and receive a full refund of your deposit. We are working with our partners to safeguard your health, while allowing for an enjoyable travel experience.

I invite you to join fellow Carls and friends on this warm, winter escape that is timed to coincide with minimal moonlight, allowing for some nighttime star gazing sessions in addition to daytime explorations of colonial towns, traditional Maya villages, and splendid archaeological sites.

Travel and learn with two Carleton Professors: Al Montero, Frank B. Kellogg Chair of Political Science; and Joel Weisberg, Herman and Gertrude Mosier Stark Professor of Physics and Astronomy and the Natural Sciences, Emeritus. On clear, dark evenings, join Professor Weisberg for star gazing. Each day, explore the sun-drenched Yucatan Peninsula with Profs. Montero and Weisberg as well as an expert local trip manager/guide who will handle all of the details.

Highlights:

- On this 9-day winter getaway enjoy average daytime temperatures in the 80s (F).
- Visit the archaeological UNESCO World Heritage Sites of Chichén Itzá and Uxmal, as well as lesser-known Maya sites such as Ek Balam, Dzibilchaltun, Mayapán, and Maní.
- Admire not only soaring ancient pyramids, distinctive temple complexes, intricate stone carvings, and stucco statues, but also traditional Maya villages and colonial towns.
- Spend free time bird watching, shopping for crafts, or relaxing on the luxurious hotel grounds.

This well-paced program spends three nights in Mérida, three in Chichén Itzá, and two in Uxmal; and all meals and excursions are included.

This Carleton-exclusive program is a perfect close-to-home, warm weather escape in winter – a chance to recharge, learn, meet old and new Carleton friends, and do some unique holiday shopping, all amid impressive ancient monuments and charming colonial architecture.

Sincerely,

Amy Bevilacqua '89
President, Carleton Alumni Council

ITINERARY

(B)= Breakfast, (L)= Lunch, (R)=Reception, (D)= Dinner

Monday, November 29, 2021: Depart the U.S. on flights to Mérida, Mexico

Arrive at Mérida International Airport (MID) and transfer to our hotel. Overnight at the 4-star Wayam Mundo Imperial hotel for two nights. (D)

Tuesday, November 30: Mérida: City tour | Dzibilchaltun | Welcome dinner

After an orientation walking tour of Mérida, we drive 30 minutes to Dzibilchaltun, a 2,000-year-old site with a famous astronomical alignment. Highlights include the Temple of the Seven Dolls and a cenote (sinkhole with groundwater). Caves and cenotes were (and are) very important openings to the Maya underworld, as both the abode of the rain gods and places of worship. We also visit the site museum, and then drive 20 minutes to enjoy lunch at a lovely restaurant on the Gulf of Mexico. Return to Mérida to relax, and then gather for a welcome reception and dinner hosted by our two Carleton professors and expert local guide. (B,L,R,D)

Wednesday, December 1: Izamal Convent | Chichén Itzá, part one

Drive an hour and a half to Chichén Itzá, stopping along the way to visit Izamal and its Convent. In Izamal, the Spanish conquistadors built their church atop a Maya pyramid. Climb to the top of Kinich Kakmo, the largest pyramid (in volume) in all Maya land. Continue on to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Chichén Itzá, arriving in time for lunch. Then a short walk from our hotel takes us back 1,000 years as we gaze at Chichén Itzá spectacular 9th-century temples and pyramids. We will see all the site's highlights, including the Sacred Well, Ballcourt, Castillo, Observatory, High Priest's Grave, and Nunnery. Gather this evening for dinner. Please note that on evenings with clear, dark skies, Professor Weisberg will offer star gazing. Overnight at the 3-star Mayaland Hotel for three nights. (B,L,D)

Thursday, December 2: Chichén Itzá, part two | PM at leisure

In the morning, we explore lesser-visited parts of Chichén Itzá. After lunch, the afternoon is at leisure to visit the site's bookstores and gift shops, and/or to relax on the hotel grounds. Gather this evening for dinner. (B,L,D)

Friday, December 3: Ek Balam | Chichén Itzá

Drive an hour to Ek Balam, a small site with spectacular, mythological creatures sculpted in the full round and then hidden 1,200 years ago by the Maya themselves, only to be re-discovered recently by archaeologists. There will be an opportunity to visit the cenote and take a swim. After lunch, return to Chichén Itzá for more time exploring the site, or relax on the hotel grounds. Gather this evening for dinner. (B,L,D)

Saturday, December 4: Mayapán | Maní | Uxmal

This morning we depart Chichén Itzá and drive two hours to Mayapán, a rarely-visited ancient Maya city that was one of the region's most important cities in the Postclassic

Period (ca. A.D. 900–1519). Continue on to the small city of Maní to see the 16th-century Church and Convent of San Miguel Arcangel (Archangel St. Michael), which has one of the largest open chapels in Latin America. The city is perhaps best known as the place where Diego de Landa conducted the “Auto de Fe” (Act of Faith) and burned thousands of Maya codices (bark-paper books) and religious items. Much of what we know today about Maya astronomical knowledge has been gathered from the only three or four extant codices, which were probably written no earlier than the 12th century A.D. (but could be copies of much earlier books). After lunch at the Tutul Xiu Restaurant we drive an hour to Uxmal. Check-in to our hotel, settle in, and then gather this evening for dinner. Overnight at the 4-star Hacienda Uxmal Plantation & Museum for two nights. (B,L,D)

Sunday, December 5: Uxmal

Spend a full day exploring the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Uxmal. Uxmal is the capital of the Puuc region, on the western side of the Peninsula—a unique sub-area within the greater Maya zone with its own brand of architecture and mosaic-stone decoration. Uxmal’s “Governor’s Palace” was one of Frank Lloyd Wright’s favorite buildings. There will be an optional light and sound show after dark. (B,L,D)

Monday, December 6: Uxmal: AM at leisure | Mérida: The Great Museum of the Maya World | Farewell dinner

Relax at our lovely hotel or visit an interesting arts and crafts shop before our return drive to Mérida. After lunch, visit Mérida’s anthropology museum, The Great Museum of the Maya World, housing artifacts from many of the sites that we visited. After some free time to relax or explore independently, we gather for our farewell reception and dinner. Overnight at the 4-star Wayam Mundo Imperial hotel. (B,L,R,D)

Tuesday, December 7: Fly home

Transfer to Mérida International Airport (MID) for flights home.

Sponsors/Operator are not required to cancel any trip for any reason including, without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization, or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Sponsors/Operator are not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Sponsors/Operator make the flight arrangements or cancels the trip. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to substitute hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure. LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without prior notice. PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. In the event that you must cancel your participation, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. At the participant's option, however, in lieu of litigation, Sponsors/Operator will agree to binding arbitration in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive, but not procedural, New Hampshire law, pursuant to the then existing commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association. In any such arbitration, the arbitrator, and not any federal, state, or local court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT & CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL: Both the Centers for Disease Control and U.S. State Department publish and update important country-specific information for travelers. They can presently be found at: <https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices> and <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html>. MISCELLANEOUS: Participants should not purchase airline tickets prior to receiving their final payment invoice so as to avoid airline cancellation penalties if a tour is canceled or otherwise modified subsequent to the participant's purchase of those tickets. Baggage and personal effects are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. If, due to weather, flight schedules, or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend (an) additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers, and meal costs.
