

Carleton Student Organizations (Economics Interest)

Carleton Investment Group

<http://apps.carleton.edu/student/orgs/cig/>

The Carleton Investment Group seeks to educate Carleton students about the world of business through weekly discussions and other learning opportunities. Topics of interest include business, entrepreneurship, the economy, investing strategies, jobs/internships, and recent news.

Meetings – Tuesdays @ 8pm

Contacts: Erik Hansen (hansene2), Ned Wang (wangn2), and David Perl (perld)

Women in Economics

The Women in Economics Group seeks to increase the involvement of women in the field of economics. The group hosts alumni panels and group discussions to encourage women to get involved in economics.

Fall Term Meetings – TBA

Contacts: Caroline Kralovec-Kirchherr (kralovecc), Iris Arbogast (arbogasti), and Jenna Korobova (korobovaj)

Carleton Business Club

The Carleton Business Club holds weekly meetings on a new business or economic topic every week. We will also include general business case practices.

Meetings – Typically Saturday afternoons

Contacts: Nathaniel Lovin (lovinn) and Byron Valenzuela (valenquelab)