

2021-2022 Economics Department Events (Economics Major Credit Opportunities)

A new economics major requirement begins with the class of 2023 as follows:

6 Talk Credits: As part of the satisfaction of their comps exercise, majors must accumulate six talk credits during their combined junior and senior years by attending department events, including: the Veblen-Clark Lecture, the Lamson Lecture, other scheduled talks by visiting speakers sponsored by the department, and candidate job talks during recruiting years. A list of these events is listed below.

FALL TERM

September 29 - 4:30pm - Weitz 230 [1 credit]

"Why Britain? Towards a New View of the Industrial Revolution"

Ott Family Lecture, Cormac O'Grada (hosted by History Dept)

October 20 - 4:00pm - Weitz 236 [1 credit]

Race, Privilege, and Inequality Visiting Speaker Series: "How Economists Think About Discrimination: Racial Discrimination in Public Accommodations"

Dr. Trevon Logan, Associate Dean, College of Arts and Sciences and Hazel C. Youngberg Trustees Distinguished Professor of Economics, Department of Economics, Ohio State University

WINTER TERM

January 21 - 4pm, location tbd [2 credits]

Lamson Lecture: "Economics In and Out of the Ivory Tower"

Dr. John Karl Scholz '81
Provost, UW-Madison

Winter term or Spring term Book Group TENTATIVE- From Here to Equality: Reparations for Black Americans in the Twenty-First Century by Sandy Darity CREDITS TBD*

SPRING TERM

April 15 - 10:50am - Skinner Memorial Chapel [1 credit]

Convocation with Visiting Professor and Alum Andy Morrison '82

Week of May 16 - date/time tbd- Veblen Clark Lecture [2 credits]

Dr. William A. ("Sandy") Darity Jr.

Samuel DuBois Cook Professor of Public Policy, African and African American Studies, and Economics
Director of the Samuel DuBois Cook Center on Social Equity at Duke University

During his visit to Carleton Dr. Darity will also meet with students, faculty and staff to discuss his book.

May 26 - 4:15pm - Great Hall [1 credit]

Comps Poster Session (for juniors only)